We Complete A Cycle

BEGINNINGS were never easy. Nor was it easy for Central High to evolve from a dust-bedraggled group of unfinished buildings to a modern, attractive institution of learning.

Spring, 1961 marks an occasion of importance: Central's first four-year class graduation. This class completes a full, wonderful cycle from the drab, uneasy start in 1957 to a shining 1961 when, its campus aglow with cultivated beauty, alma mater stands proudly among the leaders.

With an ambitious building program underway, Central now begins another cycle toward even greater eminence. But there will always be a special place in its heart for the Class of '61 "pioneers" whose never-ending stamina put Central on top.

Reflections

IMAGINATION could tell you that here is a beautiful lily pond tastefully setting off a palace . . . But even irrigation water and early morning can do magic if the eye will only look for it!

Bobcat Lair

BOBBY BOBCAT has enjoyed his perch only two years, but it has taken four years for Central's trees and grass to achieve mature beauty. It is a far cry from that first year of dust.

Spring Clouds

WHAT CAN BE MORE PLEASANT than a day in May . . . at Central High! Especially if the clouds are puffy and white, there's a slight breeze to keep the 90 degree air astir, and nobody tries to bug you about homework or study! Ah! That's living!

Our Senators Make A Tour

PROBLEMS OF GOVERNMENT from large these days, but to Arizona Governor Paul Fannin, every difficulty can be met if the people remain steadfast to solid American principles of honesty, industry, and democracy. Here Governor Fannin meets a delegation from Central High's Student Senate during the group's tour of the State Capitol. BELOW: The grand tour included a visit to the Superior Court of Justice Renz Jennings who briefs his comfortably seated visitors on points of the law. Someday, perhaps, these students may be judges!

WHEN WE build, let's build solidly and well. Good leaders meet problems with foresight and efficient judgment, building for the years ahead as well as for the important present.

ADMINISTRATION

Leaders...

BOARD OF EDUCATION members (top): Frank Haze Burch, president; Mrs. F. A. Bons, member; John H. Armer, member; (below) Dr. Trevor G. Browne, member; the Rev. William D. Bostrom, member; Elmo G. Gerber, member who resigned this year upon leaving the Phoenix Union District.

They're For Community Growth

Armer, Mrs. Bons, Mr. Burch, Rev. Bostrom, Dr. Browne; Dr. Albee, assistant superintendent for educational services and acting head this year; and Mrs. Hanna, secretary.

...On The Job

DR. CARTER, CeHS principal since its beginning four years ago, has won community praise as progressive leader.

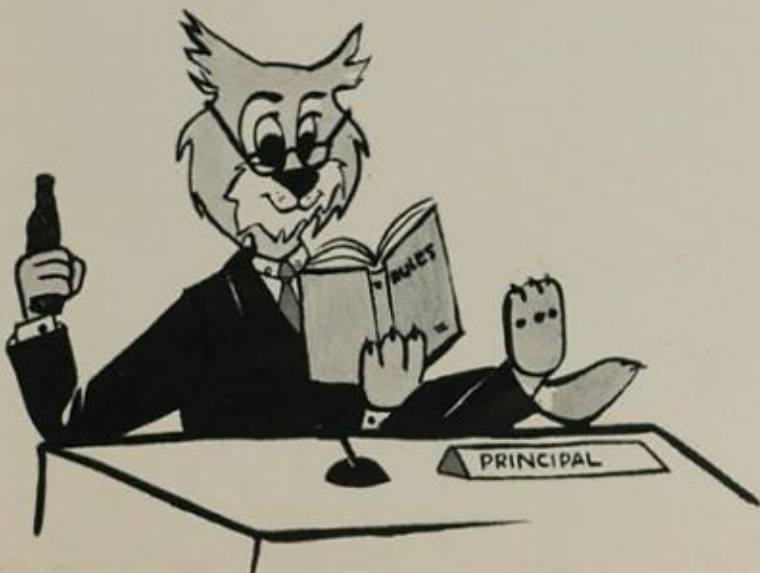

No problem regarding educational growth is too large or worrisome but that Central High School's leaders find a satisfactory solution. That is not to say the problems are routine, run - of - the - mill perplexities — far from it!

Central, plagued with too little space for too many students has had no rest from problems.

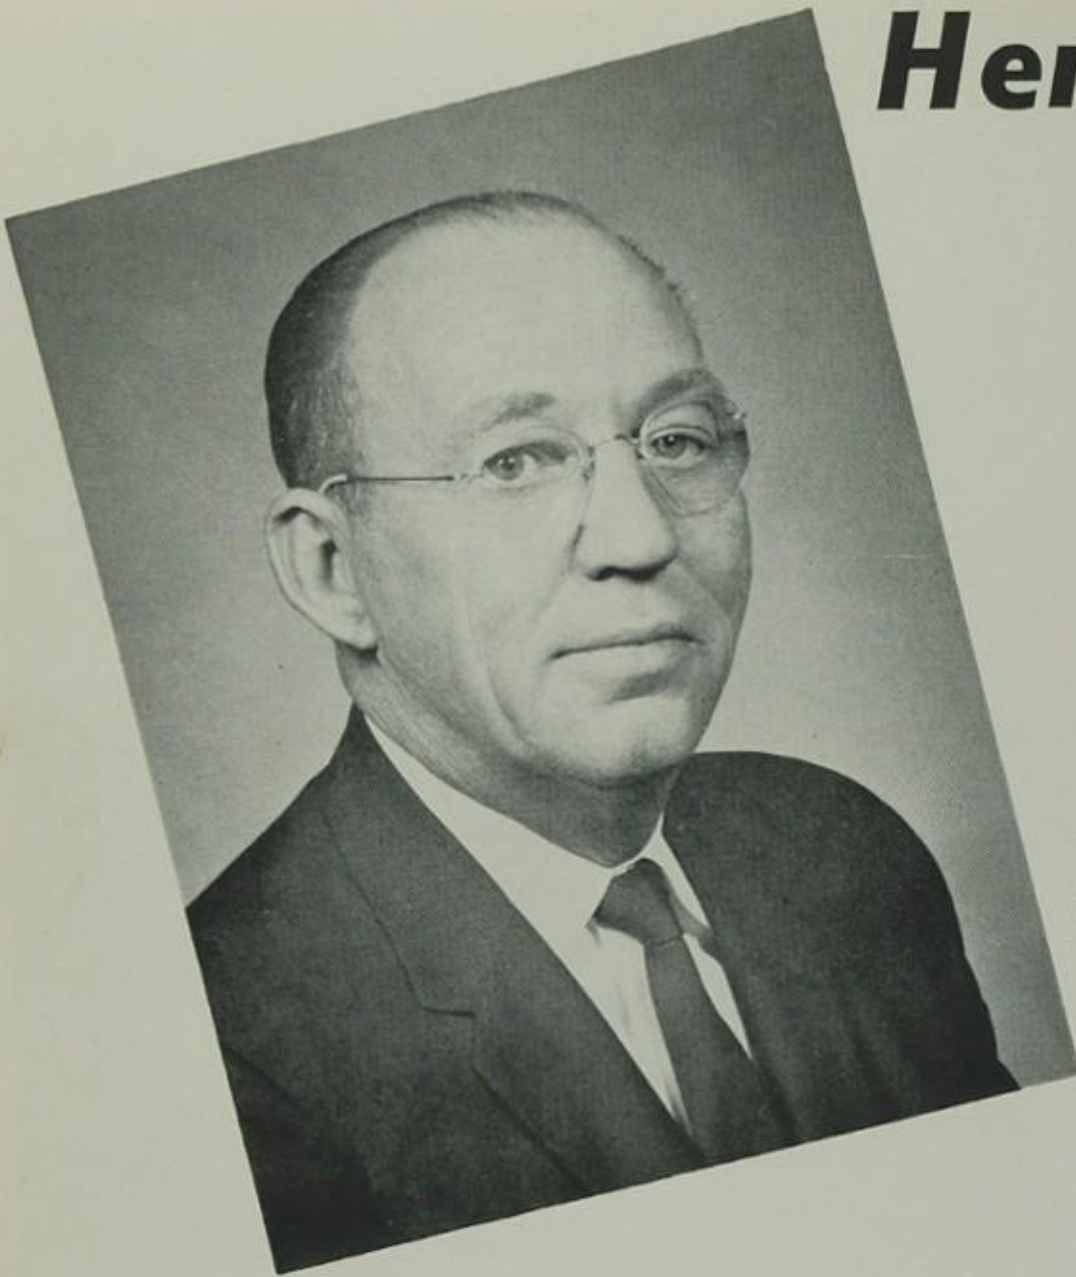

But the smooth operation of classes, high rating of its students, and the warm feeling of pride shown by the community attest to the skill of those responsible for our recognition.

Led by able Principal James S. Carter, the CeHS administration can point to remarkable progress. Happy that the new building program will eventually solve many headaches in scheduling and programming, Dr. Carter and his staff should be doubly proud of their accomplishments since that opening day in September, 1957 here at Central High School.

Here They Come!

WILLIAM M. GATES, assistant principal, met the "population explosion" with calm judgment and efficient action. But his problems still grow!

Talk of a world explosion of population was more than hearsay at 4525 North Central! When more than 1000 additional students stormed Central High's gates for entrance, Central High's Mr. Gates wanted to hide in a closet, but he didn't. He came out smiling and assured one and all, "We'll find a place for you at Central." Double sessions, triple sessions . . . what's so bad if you keep smiling!

JUST TELL US about your problems, urge William Ball, boys adviser; Lucile L. Risley, dean of girls, and M.

That he did, with the help of Dr. Carter, other administrators, and good natured teachers who were willing to share the unusual burden. Central High is not alone in the overcrowded category; but few schools with similar problems have handled the situation more smoothly. Citizenship rating at CeHS has risen steadily since that 1957 opening, thanks to the quality of Central's students and teachers.

Wayne Pitts, assistant principal for student activities. Students do bring problems, lots of 'em!

boxes and switchboard to watch as well as the bell-ringing master clock, the ladies are kept busy, busy, busy! Did we forget the Registrar's Office with its daily attendance and scheduling problems? Heaven forbid! And all thanks to the gals who do a wonderful job of keeping chaos outside their portals! Students and teachers really appreciate their efforts.

EVERYTHING in its place — that's the watchword of Central's efficient secretaries! And a mighty good motto that is, too, considering the overabundance of business that comes their way with each school day! From Bookstore to Principal's Office, with its mail

Our Leaders Governed Well

Thanks to the combined efforts, leadership, and enthusiasm of the Student Body officers, Executive Committee, and Student Senate, this year saw our government at a peak. Leaders, working to improve old standards and set new goals, forged ahead with a vigor and diversity that made '60-'61 memorable.

Rising from an embarrassing financial shortage, the student government ended the year with an excellent record of projects successfully completed. These included a magazine sale, sponsorship of needy families for Thanksgiving and Christmas, an AFS stock selling campaign, and a Bobcat pin sale.

YEP, HERE IT IS! says President Gus Blanchard to Secretary Sharon Messmore, Vice-President Anne Kovacovich, Financial Secretary Rita Gear, and Sponsor Felton, as the executives check technical point in the handbook.

GUIDANCE BOARD relaxes between student interviews. Here are Bob Storrs, Richard Mehagian, Mrs. Neff, Clerk, Beth Fillmore, Gus Blanchard, Mr. William Ball, adviser, and Peggy Heflin. Every "case" the Board considered got a square deal.

... With Thoughtful Care

"Justice — Tempered with mercy." Headed by Sponsor Ball and Student Body President Gus Blanchard, Guidance Board maintained a historically fine record by assisting many students who would otherwise have no opportunity to redeem themselves. The principle of student discipline by students was praised both by students and school personnel.

EXECUTIVES AT WORK: Discussing a bill to be proposed to the Student Senate are this year's Executive Committee members Howard Nielsen, Cheryl Evans, Jerry Telfer, Ray Hunter, Careful thought, sound planning, and competent execution of student body projects made the student government year a high spot in Central's history. Able leadership enabled the Executive Committee to co-ordinate student body activities and recommend improvements. Every Bobcat at Central had fair and adequate representation in government.

Jean Stayman, Patty McMonigle, Ned Sawyer, Libbie Bate, Chuck Sankey, and Brenda Gold. Service on this committee gives student participants invaluable training and experience.

Senators With A Purpose . . .

A solid voice in student affairs — that's what Central High students are assured through their Student Senate. An accurate balance of representation is kept, with each class electing its own senators. This year the Senate raised a stronger-than-ever voice for needed reforms. Most ambitious of these was a full-scale study of the merit system. The administration is giving serious consideration to the Senate's recommendation this school term.

Besides enacting reforms, the Senate furthered the cause of the student body by means of fund-raising projects. Starting the school year with a deficit, the group upped its treasury balance to over $2000. Projects included sale of Foreign Exchange stock, magazine subscriptions, a talent show, and sale of colorful Bobcat pins.

Central was well represented at the Arizona Student Council Convention in Scottsdale this year by Senators Pat McMonigle and Ken Weiss, who reported interesting and valuable information back to the CeHS legislators.

As CHS grows in importance, the Senate hopes to streamline many facets of student government. Leaders especially want to bring new ideas on assemblies and the honor system.

Observe Strict Law Rules

Capable leader of Student Senate for 1960-61 was Ann Kovacovich, student body vice-president. Her sense of fair play and firm control of every situation guided the legislative body through many a stormy session. Sponsor was Mr. Elmer Felton, who explained legislative terms and procedures and advised the Senate when it seemed to tread thin ice. Intelligent discussion and efficient treatment of bills marked this body as most efficient.

Highlight of second semester was a tour of the Arizona Legislature and the State Capitol while the senate and house were in session. A visit with the Governor and explanation of the Superior Court operations were included in the worthwhile trip. Members were impressed with procedures in the legislature which resembled actions of the school Senate.

WE'LL DO IT! Senate Leader Kovacovich brings smiles to fellow Senate officers considering plans for the talent program. From left are Davenport, Telfer, Trent, Kovacovich and Wahe.

BEST SELLER: Girls' League officers looking over some of the scenic note paper sold by the group are Vice-President Cindy Eisenbeiss, President Libby Bate, Treasurer Joanna Driskell, Secretary Mary Ann Wahl, and Sponsor of Girls' League, Lucille Risley.

This Girls' League Really Led

Functioning as a service organization, Girls' League traditionally assists in bringing Central coeds closer to the school, both through social events and worthy projects. Using the four class councils as a nucleus, the League successfully completed many programs, benefiting others as well as themselves. Among projects undertaken were Central High School note paper sales, pickle sales, and the adoption of several needy families at Christmas time.

In addition to fund-raising activities, Girls' League sponsored numerous social functions through the year. The annual formal, Mystic April, was a delightful affair and a tremendous success. The annual mother-daughter and father-daughter teas were well planned and therefore enjoyed by all who attended. Another annual tradition of the League was the presentation of two scholarships to senior girls, to induce interest in higher education.

GIRLS' LEAGUE CABINET tackles another problem. FRONT: Seabury, Myers, Wahl, Eisenbeiss, Bate, Driskell, Dick, Lay, Vogt. ROW 2: Blair, Evans, Buros, Johnson, Nathanson, Black, Harris, Taylor, Fong, Super, Miss Eleanor Wallingford, Kipnis.

MAKING SURE they're all there! Counting out the foreign exchange stocks purchased by Boys' Alliance are

Boys' Alliance—Always Alert

Primarily a service organization, Boys' Alliance enjoyed an action-packed year. The fourth annual Stardust Ball was a huge success, football program sales netted handsome profits, the Home Game Basketball Attendance trophy went again to the Class of '63, and the laminating machine business boomed to swell the Boys' Alliance bank balance.

Alliance also initiated two scholarships to be given worthy senior boys each year. The scholarships will go, on the basis of scholarship and citizenship, to boys planning to attend an Arizona college. Many goals have been set for the future, and the Alliance looks forward to a solid future built on the group's successful past performance.

NO KIDDING! Boys' Alliance Cabinet members show approval of the treasurer's final report. SEATED are Jacobson, Storrs, Telfer, and Blanchard. STANDING: Bayne, Inman, and Entz.

JUST CHECKIN'! Looking over a copy of Echoes to see if their material is quoted accurately are Publicity Committee members Brenda Gold, chairman; Sharon Wilson, Paul Schatt, and Susanne Peden of the committee.

Their Services In Demand

Perhaps to set a precedent, the newly formed Publicity Committee this year displayed a vigor and drive that astounded student government leaders and sponsors. With the mammoth job of publicizing all student government activities, the committee did a very efficient and worthwhile job.

AND 2 MORE FOR — Busily counting out ballots for student body officers are Election Committee members Paulette Owens, Important indeed is the work of the Election Committee. Seeing that student candidates for office get fair treatment is laudable; to carry the ideal all year long without complaint from those most concerned was high praise and a tribute to the committee's basic honesty and their efficiency.

David Stolfa, Chairman Patty McMonigle, Rick Zivney, Tom Stalnaker, and Marsha Zimmel. Group checked all elections.

Plan Ahead . . .

HOW TO MAKE assembly programs more interesting, if not more frequent, was an ever-present problem for the Assembly Committee (top group). Members John Tanner, Adviser Mary Louise Branigan, Stanley Schatt, and Cheryl Evans here go over plans for a special to feature Veteran's Day. BELOW: Let's get social! What would school be like without the dances and class parties to lighten the heavy study load! Social Committee members are Carmel Dunn, Martha Mahoney, Jean Stayman, committee chairman; Randy McDonald, and Barbara Blaine. Policy of appointing student committees to function in capacities formerly handled by faculty members gives the student body valuable voice in campus activities—without the loss of quality in the entertainment or other type of program desired. Participation—that's the feature that counts!

SAFETY COUNCIL looking over the Arizona Traffic Code for 1961 are these enthusiastic members: SEATED, ROW 1—Gear, Storrs, Posegate. ROW 2: Tomolin, Filson, Mardian, Johnston. ROW 3: Ressel, Berkson, Vogt, Smith. STANDING: Lambert, Hunter, Dent, Smith, Farnell, Brown, Mehagian, King, Mr.

Hoeffel, Brand, B. Berkson. Admiring this timely reminder of the tragic death toll are Mr. Lunsford, Rich Farnell, Donna Lambert, Gus Blanchard. One of the most important projects of the Council this year was the safety check. Shown participating here are active Safety Council students Stern, Farnell, and Lambert.

There's Safety In Caution!

Active, growing, and improving . . . this best describes Central's Safety Council. Led by President Rich Farnell and supervised by Mr. Al Hoeffel, the Council began school year by writing a constitution.

Safety assemblies highlighted their school-wide activities, which also included poster campaigns, a safety check, windshield washing, and a dramatic car smash. As a final word of caution to teenage drivers, the Council placed in the cafeteria during National Safety Week the recording of an accident that completely wrecked cars and took many lives—a grisly reminder of Arizona's tragic death rate.

Guest speaker was Coach Max Spillsbury of ASC, Flagstaff. With him are Mr. and Mrs. Pitts, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Kemp. Grid players enjoyed talks and good food.

Dads Fete Lads

BEST WAY TO HONOR growing boys who have given their best to a season of football is to feed 'em. That was the philosophy of the Dads' Club which hosted a banquet Nov. 22 in the cafeteria for the 1960 Bobcat footballers. Top trophy went to Al Moutran, outstanding senior. Other varsity lettermen were given gold "C"s. At a Nov. 15 organizational meeting the Dads' Club heard speakers from the FBI narcotics division and a representative of the Los Angeles Rams professional football team. Dads' Club will repeat event next fall.

HOW safe? Youth looks at today's world with justifiable apprehension. But mature judgment paints a hopeful picture. It still is a good world rich in opportunities for the young and ambitious. Ac-

Teener's Best Friend—Teacher!

JUST LOOK! Reading Expert Lillian Hinds is happy to demonstrate some of the "helps" available in the Reading Center. Interested are P.E. teachers Harriett Mitten, Joyce Sanders, and Colleen Cook.

YOU CAN'T get away with crime just because you're a juvenile, warns Parole Officer Dan Zapien in an address to journalism students. A former PUHS journalism student, Mr. Zapien is an accomplished movie and TV actor, artist, and career peace officer. He was one of many interesting visitors to the publications classes this year. Many were the questions asked him!

Yep! Movie Stars At Central!

ACTION! CAMERA! Audio Visual services this year included taking of movies at football games and for special programs to be used at PTA meetings and similar functions. Camera-men are Kit Tuveson and Ken Kistler. They and other A-V workers are trained by Mr. Felton.

use of the library's facilities for research, lesson planning, and reading for enjoyment. UPPER LEFT: Student looks over attractive display which urges visitors really to use the library.

Our Fabulous 'Roundhouse'

YOU'LL NEVER HEAR a Central High Student singing the "Roundhouse Blues"! In fact, students and teachers agree that our "roundhouse" not only is the most attractive building on campus but it also is the most inviting. Its cool, bright atmosphere, 12,000 books including modern research volumes, and efficient operation make the library a constant source of pleasure to its users. Open stacks give students opportunity to learn how libraries function; maps, huge dictionaries, and ample reading space all contribute to the successful pursuit of knowledge. Librarians are trained to guide students without doing too much of the job . . . since real learning must come through the student's own efforts.

WINNER of city-wide "Marianne" award was attractive Sharon Flynn, Central's Foreign Language Department nominee. With the award also went national recognition.

New Vistas...

The study of a foreign language, in introducing another medium of communication, opens up new vistas of thought and develops insights into the way people of other languages think and feel.

Language learning is a matter of listening, speaking, reading and writing. With this in mind, eight teachers and two student teachers in the Foreign Language Department teach two years of German and Latin and four years of Spanish and French.

With more than half of the student body enrolled in these courses, student acceptance is very active and promises an increase with the completion of Central's Language Laboratory. In this age of New Frontiers, students appreciate the old adage, "He who is a master of many tongues is a master of the world." We could use more of that "mastery"!

We Learn To Communicate

AT YOUR SERVICE! Secretary Martha Fitzgerald gets many a call for help from Central's Counseling Department. RIGHT:

Popular Secretaries Eleanor Parks and Margaretta Neff find things to keep them busy in the Student Activities Office.

HOLD STILL NOW! While Sandy Warner is pinning the hem on the dress she is making in home economics, Karen Glazewski

We Must Work To Win Success

What's new in styles from Paris, Broadway, or Hollywood? Give our Homemaking students a tip or two, some material and a little time, and they'll be wearing the latest! That is, if the styles are becoming and not just outlandish fads . . . the girls have taste as well as ingenuity, you know! Homemaking courses include planning for a well-organized home, also. Cooking, child care, family relations, and budgeting are also carefully studied.

PAT'S ORIGINALS! Pretty, perky Pat Anderson is a dress designer, and she's only a sophomore. Many of her designs won Artists express themselves in many ways. It may be in dress design, painting, sculpture, freehand drawing, poster painting, or architecture. Students of art learn that appreciation of balance, tone, texture, and pattern are as important as success of production. Life itself is a daily application of artistic principles; how we learn to apply ourselves to immediate problems has impact on the future. In art classes we learn by working hard at the job.

gold keys in various fields at Scholastic Art Awards this year. Other Central student artists did well also in state competition.

THIS IS YOUR LIFE! Dr. Carter is pleasantly surprised by PTA President McDonald when the Parent-Teachers Association planned a program built around the popular TV series of Ralph Edwards. Others seated around the honoree showed mixed emotions and included Mr. and meeting! Far from the expected business and serious discussion type of thing the members anticipated, President McDonald and his fellow officers turned the occasion into a TV Spectacular, "This Is Your Life, Dr. James Carter!" Everybody had cooperated to bring the Carter Story to life . . . from his early boyhood to his progress as an honor student through high school and college to the eminence he has reached as administrator of an outstanding, modern educational institution, Central High.

THERE'S NOTHING like a surprise to pep up an evening . . . especially if it's a Parent-Teacher Association

BEST INSURANCE for good grades is hard work, Business Ed Instructor Hepburn tells Tony Clock and his parents during Open House conference. Meeting teachers and seeing first-hand some of the classroom problems makes Open House valuable to taxpayers as a key to community understanding.

Hard Work Pays Dividends

RIGHT FILM to show? A-V Secretary Gladys Wilke and Student Operator Gene Kopecky agree that it is, after checking records. Audio-Visual services have proved increasingly worthwhile as teaching aid. RIGHT: School Nurse Josephine Rhodes has a cheery word for Lauren Williams, visitor to Health Center. Hundreds of students are served at the Center each term.

MERRY EATING goes with the Yule season, as these Cafeteria workers prove. Mrs. Rollins holds cake she baked for the extra-special occasion.

When There's Work To Do . . .

MAINTENANCE workers keep Central High in smooth running order! Note (below, left) that Earl Osborn, engineer, is ready to fix that contrary clock . . . but the wrench does seem a bit large to Charles Twigger and Foreman Gene Sims. UPPER RIGHT: Busy with warehouse packages are Keith Melniem (top), Richard Doyle, Walt Rix, John Helms, Howard Padgett, Tom Watson, Darel Page, and Gilbert Ramos. LOWER RIGHT: Easy does it in the Parking Lot! Attendants Roy Kent, Richard Schroeder, Frank Zimmerman, Sam Kale, and Pete Christiansen strike a dramatic pose as if to back up the signs. Students have learned to respect the parking rules.

They Labor Early And Late

There's much more to a school than students, teachers, and classrooms. Small items such as rooms to tidy, grounds to keep green and trim, windows to shine, lights to repair, and food to stoke hungry tummies . . . all these are not only desirable but also essential to the well-run educational establishment.

Hours before we arrive for classes, and even more hours after we have snapped our lockers shut and headed for home, cheerful, efficient men and women work to keep Central High School constantly clean, shining and efficient.

Students have learned to respect their dedi-cated workers who see that cars are properly parked and safety rules observed; who pick up after the litterbugs (we have 'em all right!) and who see that we get tasty food at rea-sonable prices. Many thanks to all of them! May they continue to enjoy their work here!

An abstract graphic design featuring three overlapping circles in shades of gray on the left side. A thick black line runs vertically from the top left, and another thick black line runs horizontally across the bottom. A diagonal black line crosses the lower half of the page. The text is positioned in the upper right quadrant.

HEY! Going my way? Gotta hurry . . . my plane's leaving in 30 minutes! Another cycle beckons to Class of '61 and our Central grad is ready. But he'll be leaving behind more than memories of his days as a big wheel at Central High School!

OUR CLASSES

Class of '61

CIRCLE WINNERS! Officers of the 1961 Class and leaders all the way were Ned Sawyer, president; Sue Young, secretary; Barbara Kulik, treasurer, and Bob Dahl, vice-president.

They Were First To Finish!

Closing the first circle of graduating students from Central High School was the illustrious Class of '61. They entered CeHS as freshmen when the building process was still going on. Muddy paths in rainy weather, no shade in fair weather, and problems, problems everywhere as the new school struggled to find itself — these were of little help to a band of bewildered freshmen!

But Central grew, and so did the Class of '61. Trees shot up, dignity and pride replaced wild disorder, and CeHS won a proud place in Class AA athletics as well as state honors in scholarship. Class of '61 enjoyed its Christmas snowman, Senior Day, South Pacific Swing, the Prom. Yet to come were the All-Night Party and . . . Graduation!

Aloha—Bon Voyage!

Wow! That senior South Seas party! TOP LEFT: Little group of waving wahinis say farewell to the departing seniors who sponsored annual South Pacific Swing, the only dance all year at which students are allowed to wear bermuda shorts and other casual wear. TOP RIGHT: Doing wild native dances to the music of a top-rate local combo are Ed Martensen, Cindy Eisenbeiss, Linda Vaupell, Mike Davies, and Rita Gear. LOWER LEFT: Demonstrating type of dress worn by seniors on annual Bermuda Day are Lynn Wright and Bev Johnson. LOWER RIGHT: Choral leader Glenn Ostlund and group of lively Bobcats gives a startling rendition of "The Coconut Song", while restless natives cloister about.

MARCHING ALONG the road to success! Most likely to succeed are David Stolfa, Judith Pardee. Most outstanding votes went to Gus Blanchard, student body president, and Anne Kovacovich, vice-president, who is also Senate president.

These Were The Very Most!

MORE MOSTS: Most Athletic—Cathy Carpenter and (right)

Mel Dunn. Most Embarrassable—Pete Voss and Barbie Kulick.

Outstanding!

Class of '62

JUNIOR officers looking over some of the datebooks sold by the class are Ray Hunter, president; Pat Garner, secretary; Karen Wilson, treasurer; Dain Inman, vice-pres.

Class of '62 was the sellingest class on campus this year, with a variety of items unequaled on Central High grounds. Their stock of merchandise included candy bars, cookies, sweatshirts, date books, and several bushels of tasty squeezies.

In addition the Class of '62 maintained traditional activities of the Junior Class. They sponsored the Junior-Senior Prom, a huge success at Phoenix Country Club, and the annual Junior-Senior basketball game, a very hilarious and exciting event.

VOTE FOR ME! Signs of the times, election times that is, flooded the campus. With student body offices up for grabs, the campaign waxed hot and the signs grew more profuse. Surround-

State Capitol Tour

There was much to be seen and heard during that trip to the Legislature! Student Senators on their annual trip to tour the State Legislature saw how the government of our own state is run, in hopes that from this trip, ideas could be formulated that would improve our school government, which runs on the same principle. TOP: Included in the tour was a visit to the House of Representatives, where the Central Senators saw an actual session. LOWER LEFT: Pausing for a moment to look over some data, Senators Schatt, Bate, and Kalina get an interested crowd of senators around them. LOWER RIGHT: "How does it fit you?" giggles Marilyn Webb to VIP friend Peggy Heflin, who seems quite at ease in the Governor's chair. Senator Webb was quite taken aback when asked if she had an appointment.

AND AWAAAY THEY GO! Come June and the Boys' State nominees will head for the tall pine country in Flagstaff and a session of practical democracy. ABOVE: Boys' Staters include Jim Walker, John Jacobson, Ray Hunter, Tom Liston, Hal Gais-

They'll Practice Democracy

Just Name The Job...We'll Tackle Anything

JUNIOR CLASS Council at work: SEATED: Wilson, Blumberg, Webb, Boyer, Black, Ragland, Davis. CENTER: Gainer, Peden, Owen, Walker, Heflin, Arnote, Dunn, Cressler, Rice, Faris,

Sophomores Are Good Citizens

What do you wanta buy? Check first with the Class of '63 — they'll give you the best deal! Sales projects dominated the sophomores' efforts this year; they're planning ahead to finance next year's Prom. Candy, Nestle's Crunch, cupcakes sales and a car wash or so helped. A Hi-Fi dance also clicked.

LINE-UP: A foul-up in sophomore-frosh pictures forced a retake, but results proved to be excellent. In one day Photographer

Our sophomores were really on their way! Class of '63 captured the Boys' Alliance Attendance Trophy for the second straight year. They plan to retain it two more years. They also adopted a family at Christmas time and set an example to the rest of Central High's Bobcats in good citizenship.

Bailey, who came to the rescue, "shot" 1200 underclassmen. Everybody here co-operated—with obviously excellent results.

FOREIGN STUDENT, 1961! Picture might not be so hot, but the campaign was! Fired up by English Instructor Lind's classes, the Foreign Exchange Student Program gained great popularity and a healthy bank account. Here are a few of Mr. Lind's hotshots, who formed the letters with stock certificates they had bought. Altogether they bought $576 worth of Exchange Coupons. Entire student body total was $1250.

TAKE a letter! Frosh officers enact office scene here with Kay Wahl, secretary; Howard Neilson, president; Glenda Bailey, treasurer, and Marilyn Ramenofsky, vice president.

Slow Start To A Big Finish

They were a bit slow getting underway, but once the Class of '64 got up steam, nothing could stop 'em. Still somewhat ill at ease in a big high school, freshmen were willing to learn. They joined clubs, went out for sports, and generally followed the good citizenship path to make a better school.

PROFESSOR Steve Rasmussen meant well, but his class of Honor Roll pupils were more interested in facing the camera! Shown with shining faces are Ramenofsky, Vogt, Lewis, Hill, Wright, Class officers organized a "money" visit to a mortuary and sales of Chinese fortune cookies, cakes, and the like. By next fall they'll be solidly schooled in the schemes to raise money for their treasury, Class Sponsors Elizabeth Leftwich and Paul Hatch confided. Good luck to you, Frosh!

Wiesil, Mason, Anderson, McGuire, Yarrish, Luckie, Eberhard. STANDING: Perry, Mardian, Bromay, Kartus, and Skelton. These students really did disprove the "dumb frosh" theory.

SO THAT'S HOW! What a fine way to teach politics to our freshmen! But even the first year voters know Ray is only kidding . . . at least most of them voted for him! Campaign signs seem to grow more flamboyant as each successive election arrives. What will the next political drive produce? Make your guess a wild one . . . even that might be conservative!

Freshmen Who Think

the best grade-grabbers from Class of '64, every one of 'em an honor student! Here are their names, and don't be surprised someday to see them in the headlines: Davich, Maisner, Ramras, Abernethy, Stevens, Rheingold, Sack, Rowland, Hassinger, Lane. Also Broman, Harvey, Adams, Myerson, Stapley, Cotten, Hall, Blocher, Murphy, Hart, and Grosberg. LOWER LEFT: Eyesight tests are in vogue with the beginning of school. Parents assist in the Health Center. RIGHT: Here's one freshman that believes in signs! Get behind the team . . . Yea, Bobcats!

YES YOUR HONOR! Future judges, lawyers, senators and scientists are grinning back at you from behind those armfuls of books! Here are

BEST FOOT forward! sprightly and high-stepping are our special activities. Bobcats will long relish the memory of happy days in the band, the choir, and on the staff! Of such is school spirit...

ACTIVITIES

BOBCAT BAND members at concert. OBOES: Joan Elardo, Betty McCollum. FLUTES: Joanna Driskell, Susan Forbes, Nadine Deupree, Douglas Knight, Roberta Erickson, Ann Ward, Bob Grassi. B $\flat$  CLARINETS: Marilyn Sinibaldi, Lynnea Willman, Janis Baucum, Cordelia Jones, Marian Graeppler, Stella Saliego. Bob Evertson, Carrie Jeffries, Paula North, Tom Carrick,

Peggy Colbert, Bob York, George Demming, Larry Sheehan. ALTO CLARINET: Beverly Knobel. BASS CLARINET: Alan Fishleder. BASSOONS: Jim Stringham, Bob Greene. ALTO SAXOPHONE: Susan Granis, Ken Romley, Lorna Morgensen. TENOR SAXOPHONE: William McLeod. Hampered by lack of a stage, the Central High Concert Band nevertheless flourished.

Can't Beat That Bobcat Band!

BARITONES: Lanny Dickinson, Vincent Mueller, Brooks Harman. TROMBONES (TENOR): Brent Deupree, Lynn King, Larry Hedgepeth, Steve Fronstin. BASS TROMBONES: Wesley Parsons, Morris Harvey. TUBAS: Clark Williams, Pete Mancino, Joe Mangino, Alan Chandler, Roy Berneburg, Walter Hoesch.

They Play Music We Can Enjoy

Bobcats played to beat the band at sports events, pep assemblies, concerts, and parades, including the big J.C. Rodeo Parade.

The musicians blew (and beat!) their way to the top at Flagstaff. . . several members were chosen to play in the All State Band! Bobcat soloists even appeared with the All State Honor musician's group.

Next December our musicians will move into Central's new bandroom. Outlook for next year? Excellent!! The band is losing only seven seniors, and enrollment promises to be heavy.

Recognized is the fact that many Bobcats have talent in music. But our great band is made of students willing to display their talent at any time!

MEET ME AT THE FAIR! Bobcat Band had its day at the Arizona State Fair. They marched and tooted to everyone's delight.

HARMONY on moment's notice comes from Madrigals, who need no accompaniment. Front: Evertsen, Smith, Von Blum. Back Row: Odom, Seefried, Dise, Cliff Wickstrom, and Tessitore.

Get Us There And We'll Sing...

Concert Choir, directed by Mr. William Bagwell, made frequent appearances throughout the Valley this year. They also sang in many school assemblies. Highlights included Christmas Assembly, a patriotic program, and the Tribute to Oscar Hammerstein. During Christmas Season the Choir caroled at Park Central, sang for the Valley of the Sun School for Crippled Children, and taped recordings for several local radio stations. The group also entered the Mesa, Tempe, and Tucson Regional Festivals. Traditionally the Choir sings at Central High School's Commencement Exercises in June.

Director Bagwell joked, "Next year we hope to read music and sing at intervals! With Prexy Keneally gone, we won't have to worry about forgotten bow ties. Also we'd like to take a trip to the West Coast, get new music holders, new girls' uniforms, and, oh, yes — more and more boys!"

Hauser, Koenig, Burnett, Eason, Rigler, Davy, Odom, Von Berber, Wakeling, Andersen, Fullerton, Jones. TOP: Mapel, Miller, Bentle, Telfer, Skinner, Lebs, Schatt, R. Kelman, Keneally, Clifford Wickstrom, Burleson, Rushton, and Hickey.

... Sweet For All To Enjoy!

With a song in their hearts . . . and beautiful music their constant joy, Choraliers have won high praise from all who have heard them. Choral music rendered by an all-girl group has a special quality of sweetness that no mixed group can achieve. Hence the Choraliers, while performing with the Concert Choir and Orchestra, have filled a particularly important role at Central High School. The close harmony renditions of the Debutantes also found willing listeners in our Salt River Valley

The girls sang for programs at Rose Lane School and at Madison Meadows School as well as at regular meetings with the other CeHS music groups. To end a wonderful year they have a part in the Baccalaureate and Class of '61 graduation exercises.

ONE, TWO, Three, and away they sing! Debutantes, mingling their voices in sweet harmony, include Patty Hinz, Evelyn Dise, and Judy Stone.

They Enjoy Sibelius & Brahms

CONCERT ORCHESTRA, directed by Mr. William Bagwell, made a favorable impression on townspeople as well as listeners at CeHS. Hard practice and attention to detail paid off.

NOW, THIS is the best part, explains Orchestra Director Bagwell, show in conference with Hank Keneally, Orchestra and Concert Choir president, and Pam Lazzari, Choraliers president.

Vaupell, Edwards, Willetz, Solberg, Nemeth, J. Bagwell, McLeod, J. Elliott, Telfer, Stewart, William Eberhard, Chambers, Levy, Kaufman, Zody, Littler, Sanders, Bobelbower, and Williams.

Technique First, Then Variety

Technique, that elusive but desirable ingredient, is important to Central High School's Concert orchestra. And if interest and devotion to practice are any indication, this group achieved a lot of technique in the department of fine and fancy music!

Under the able direction of Mr. William Bagwell, himself a talented musician, the Orchestra won great success and many friends among students and patrons who heard the concerts. Concerts were planned not only for technical perfection but also for listener appeal. Many classics as well as more popular numbers were offered for public approval.

During 1960-61 the Orchestra presented a variety of programs aimed to please every taste. For example, there was the popular Memorial To Hammerstein, featuring that great composer's songs. Then came the patriotic assembly with martial airs and swift tempo. The highly entertaining Christmas Assembly, with skits and dances as well as choral music was a highlight.

A Civil War Centennial program and the Annual Spring Concert wound up regular appearances of the group. They also entered various music festivals in the state winning praise and recognition.

be unprepared for work! LOWER LEFT: Here are the $60 salesmen who have earned bonus annuals for advertising prowess: Carolyn Hartman, Randy McDonald, Neil Schnitzer, Elaine Hoffman, Brent and Nadine Deupree. There were others, too.

Yearbook Work? Nothin' To It!

Aw right, aw right, who took that paper I just laid down a minute ago? Where's the glue? Hey, bring the dummy back; I gotta look something up!

Sounds familiar to any publications staffer on a busy day . . . and there's just one more demand: I want a typewriter!

Problems seemed to mount on problems as deadlines drew nearer and pressures grew stronger to get the job done. Not that yearbook staffs ever have an easy, carefree time of it, but lack of facilities, including a place to work, can annoy.

Just as everything gets laid out for work, it seemed, the warning buzzer would say, "Clear out! Here comes that English class!" At Central we call it share-the-room. The staff called it many less kindly things, too. But hope dies hard. Wait until we get into the new building . . . next year . . . or perhaps the year after . . . ! Anyway we'll go on.

QUILL & SCROLL to the rescue! Members of the journalism society helping to check proof and write Centralian '61 copy are Sue Keilly, Jerry Telfer, Rogue Guirey, Paul Schatt, Ron Hubert, Mary Jo Shaffer, Mark Soubie, Shelley Swarthout, and Candy Dent. Most of the responsibility of getting out the year-book falls on these writers of the proofed and printed word.

To Succeed, Write, Write...!

If at first you don't write, as a journalist you'll NEVER succeed! Hampered by lack of adequate publications facilities, but by dint of portable type-writers, distant dark rooms, and Sunday sessions, the staff came forth with another volume of Centralian. Plagued by misplaced pictures, lost copy, and the hurry-and-clean-up, here-comes-the-English-class, the staff somehow survived the onslaught.

Thanks to the patience of English teachers who worried through weary soph-frosh picture details and retakes; and to other teachers and students who offered tangible aid, Publications Director Scott Nelson retained his sanity, the editor decided after all not to jump off the roof, and the staff took bows for something that for long seemed impossible to achieve, but finally struggled through.

EDITOR Jerry Telfer and Business Mgr. Carolyn Hartman can smile now that the Big Job at last is over and a book is born to our school.

Central Echoes . . .

CONCENTRATION is needed to do the best copy reading, Co-Editors Judy Loken and Paul Schatt believe, and demonstrate.

Only What We Could Afford

Although the pen is mightier than the sword, high costs of producing a school newspaper can top even the pen that writes under water! With only students' dimes and advertisers' dollars to square the printing bills, Central Echoes came out with only five issues, and, we hoped, a credit balance!

Students had high praise for Editors Loken and Schatt, who produced a snappy, readable newspaper. Features were sprightly, news articles concise and well written. Ad salesmen also did well, with two full page ads and a variety of other cash providers that still left room for news coverage.

MONEY MAKING for The Echoes kept Ken Weiss, Mark, Soubie, and Ely Pentland on the go. Here they check ad records. RIGHT: Liz Hauser and Candy Dent scan exchange papers from neighboring schools. They get new ideas that way!

Campaigner

CLEANS UP MESS IN PUBLICATIONS OFFICE! Such could be the headline to the events leading up to this candid snapshot. Having stood the rubble and disorder in Room 527 as long as she could, the Central Echoes editor-in-chief issued orders, sent out for a broom, and, by example, started a general cleanup! Watching Judy carry the campaign almost to their feet are interested but rather tired reporters Bob Iovinelli, Neil Schnitzer, and Mark Soubie. Did the editor use the broom on anything (or anybody) other than waste paper as she swept near the cheer squad? You guess! But it's "freedom of the press" — at work, with definite and vigorous action!

Pom Pon Girls Sparkle . . .

PRETTY PATTERN-makers are Pom Pon Girls (top) Morell, Vaupell, Stayman, Gear, Garner and (kneeling) Grodzinsky, Samuelson, and Hoffman, captain.

HOORAY for the heroes! Pom Pon Girls give grid warriors royal welcome before the game begins. Do the boys approve? You should ask such a silly question! No matter what the occasion, if it calls for a touch of glamour and pep, you'll find Pom Pon!

GAY TWENTIES costumes fail to conceal the rhythmic grace Pom Pon Girls demonstrate even when clowning. This is scene during pep assembly with Stayman, Samuelson, Vaupell and Garner pictured. Others were in act, but out of camera range.

No Stage... But We Have Talent!

Sure, we go to school to learn. But all learning doesn't come from books and dull classroom routines! Much of what is interesting and good in that cycle we call the high school years can be found at the football games and in the pep assemblies. For we must learn also how to play. Good sportsmanship and keen competition are needed ingredients of the complete life, wherever you might be!

Central High can be proud of its record in the sportsmanship category. It can boast, too, of an outstanding Pom Pon group, snappy routines, original (well, most of them) cheers, and a zest for good clean fun hard to match. We don't have an auditorium or a stage to present skits and entertaining programs. But we do pretty well with our gym floor and a talented crowd of teenagers!

PRESENT arms! Camelback High Drill Team gives Bobcats an eyeful of military precision during Veterans Day Assembly.

LET'S HEAR IT! Bobcats raised the roof at command of these pert pepsters. Cheerleaders were (bottom) Barbara Blaine, Marilyn Webb, Captain Carol Smith. TOP ROW: Carol Cooper, Candy Stearns, co-captain of the group, and Sharon Messmore.

Now! Scream 3 For The Team!

One thing inflation has not affected: the spirit of good sportsmanship and desire to back the school team, win or lose:

Two bits, four bits,
six bits
a DOLLAR . . .

All for Central stand up and HOLLER!

You had the feeling those Bobcat fans would have hollered for a lot less than two bits with this year's cute and capable cheerleaders down there directing and, by example, inspiring the yelling.

Dealing in cheers "from mild to way-out wild" six peppy Bobkittens in catchy outfits and with voices like an Atomic Bomb warning kept our team informed but good.

Carol Smith as captain sparked the production of snappy new yells while keeping the old faithful cheers as part of the repertoire. Yea, TEAM! That's what they had us yell. We add, at season's end, YEA, CHEERLEADERS! You each did a fine Job—and your student body is downright proud of you!

That Did It!

WHO SAID MODERN kids are too bored to get excited about high school games? Study these expressions as the Bobcat Five battles North's Mustangs to the final gun . . . then into overtime to win Game of Year 80-82!

SHINE 'EM UP! Just to show she knows how it's done, Riitta Wahe, Foreign Exchange student, polishes a dish in the kitchen of her American home. The modern kitchen really has an automatic dishwasher, however!

Some Dish!

DECLARING that she appreciates the American kitchen primarily because one does NOT have to dry dishes, Riitta Wahe, charming Foreign Exchange student from Finland, still proved she seems right at home where all our well-trained American girls should feel at home!

LET'S GO! Maurine Evertsen, who traveled to France last summer under the American Field Service's Foreign Exchange program, describes the wonders of travel to Debby Trask, Central's nominee for the vacation plan.

A Pretty Friend From Finland

What does a Foreign Exchange student really think of Central High? Riitta Wahe, Central's guest from Helsinki, Finland, loves it! Under the American Field Service's Foreign Exchange program, Riitta has lived in Phoenix for the past year, attending Central High School as a regular student.

"I have made many very good friends," smiles Riitta, "and student activities are a lot of fun." She had an excellent chance to observe those student activities, as throughout the year she was in constant demand by many clubs as a speaker.

The pert co-ed was a tireless speaker, giving clear, even sparkling, answers to the stock, "Do you like America better than your own country?" Riitta kept the campus in gay spirits all year, delighting students with tales of her native Finland. What question was asked her most? "How is dating in Finland?" She hopes soon to have a good answer!

by Central High boys. Runners-up were Carol Smith, Jean Stayman. Nine finalists competed for the honor.

MAGIC RHYTHM and soft lights combine to make Stardust Ball one long to remember. Boys' Alliance formal featured "Big City" decorations and sophisticated atmosphere. Girls' League formal, held in April, featured "mystery" and the election of "Mr. Centerrific," who turned out to be Gus Blanchard, Student Body Prexy.

We Like Dances . . .

PUNCH Bowl fans at Stardust Ball include Hunter, Webb, Lane, Phillippi, Jones, Zivney, Creighton, Moody.

Hey, Good Lookin'!

CUTE & CLEVER were the majorettes for this year: Karrie Jefferies, front; Jan Baucum, Lorna Morgensen, and Betty McCollum. Twirling batons and marching, the girls added sparkle to the Bobcat Band's many performances.

Centerrific Feted At Formal

STAND BACK, GALS! The line forms on the left to get an autograph from Mr. Centerrific! Gus Blanchard, the school's first to win the Girls' League honor, grins benevolently, surrounded by the runnersup and girl friends. Standing are Karen Wilson, Bev Johnson, who seemed to think maybe Lynn Wright should have won; Bev Clark, and Ned Sawyer. The Mr. Centerrific was the girls' answer to Boy's Alliance Queen contest in the fall and is meant to be an annual feature of League formal.

Spotlight On A Hero

Here Libby Bate, Girls' League president, posts Mel Dunn's picture in the honor spotlight. Other football players voted for the distinction were Dave Whittaker, Al Moutran, and Jim Bostrom. These boys really fought hard.

SCHOOL SPIRIT got a boost when the Player of the Week idea took hold and the Bobcat grid team selected by vote the outstanding member.

COOL, MAN! Real snowman, just down from Prescott, sets up his court on Central Quad. Admirers included Forsyth, Schnitzer, O'Brien, Cohen, Dale, and Entz.

BELOW: Alas, Mr. Snowman meets his Waterloo! Because eager lil boys 'n girls scorned a ruling not to throw snowballs, he is "liquidated" and his admirers drift away.

a dim-wit can see! She's Peggy Vanderhoff, as if you didn't know! LEFT: For me? People had tons of fun exchanging gifts at classroom and club parties. Here are Judy Harelson, Ann Shultz, and Stephanie Abrams.

Happy Times!

CHRISTMAS COMES but once a year . . . but Oh, that once! Right after Thanksgiving we start preparing for the most fun-full season of all . . . the time for gift giving (and getting!) and for loafing around the house, sleeping late, watching the late-late-late TV shows, eating toothsome leftovers from the big parties . . . visiting relatives and friends from all over. And once Christmas Season is over and we go back to school, somehow, the days seem to grow brighter and spring isn't so very far away. Just a little more work, then vacation . . . Cheers!

CHEERS for the winner! And hoorah for the rest who lose and return democratically to support those chosen to lead.
We organize for mutual gain.
And that requires co-operation.

'Idiot Lamp' Rebellion Rises!

It's your move! Almost forgotten in the rush of modern modes of entertainment are the games that require one to think. We sit at athletic games and cheer the team, or groan if the team is losing. At home we sit fixedly in front of the TV set, the "idiot lamp" as someone has aptly labeled it, and let the soap operas and the shoot-em-ups lull us into a stupor. What's happened to the art of thinking? Perhaps youth should look into that problem!

Central's Bridge Club is one answer. This group of alert students get a boot out of winning. Knowing how to bid is half the game; how to come through unscathed completes the fun. Bridge promises a lifetime of entertainment.

Newly-organized, the Chess Club hopes to revive an ancient art. Composed entirely of boys, the club meets each week to test members' skill at the game of kings. Interest mounts as players compete.

KEY CLUB MEMBERS include (front) Jacobson, Neely, Burton, Stors, Bob Blanchard, Tower, Gaisford, Farnell. CENTER: Weiss, Telfer, Boutell, Levy, Turner, G. Blanchard, Stolfa, ## Key Clubbers Campaign . . .

"Have Trash, Will Take!" might well have been a paraphrase used by Key Club in the fall of 1960 as members undertook to clean up the campus. As their first good citizenship project, the Kiwanis-sponsored group painted trash cans, trying psychology where ordinary appeals fell on deaf ears. The project was a success, it gave us a clean campus.

Continuing their aim as a service group, Key Clubbers worked with the TB Association to combat the dread disease. They also sponsored a showing of "Ben Hur" January 17 as a money-raiser to further their good deeds. Bob Storrs served as president, aided by Chuck Burton, Bob Blanchard, and Phil Tower. Leadership was the key word.

THIS IS ART? Maybe the words were odd and the painting weird, but Centralites had to admit that after Key Club had finished its drive to decorate trash cans everybody noticed the receptacles for litter! And sure enough, the grounds began to seem less cluttered as previously careless Bobcats aimed their trash at the "bullseye" cans! Among Key "artists" were Paul Schatt, John Maples, Hal Gaisford, Jerry Telfer, Rick Bistrow, and Tom Liston.

Tuned In For Busy Schedule

Among interesting activities of Electronics Club members are auctions, radio contacts, and special electronic projects. Providing the school with an amateur radio station is perhaps the club's most important function. Under direction of Mr. Shehane Central "Hams" made contacts with many stations throughout the United States; they also carried out some transistorized projects. Help was given to students desiring ham radio licenses.

Throughout the year, the chapter promoted various speech-drama activities. An award is made annually to Central High's outstanding senior speech student.

Masque and Gavel members rated high in numerous statewide speaking contests, and the day is not too far distant when an auditorium will make regular-scheduled plays a reality. Rich Farnell headed the voice-conscious group. Club advisor is personable Don Krischak, who is never at loss for new ideas to keep the club always active and alert.

Ancient Cultures Impressive

Latin is not a dead language . . . nor is Legio Decima a dying club! The studious language group, true to their name, Caesar's Tenth Legion, bounced through the year from one club activity to another.

Guest speakers, a traditional Roman banquet, club initiation fun, and active participation in the Foreign Language Department's Christmas party were just a few highlights. Members also prepared interesting reports, completed projects, and threw new light on culture. Officers were Pam Lazzari, Bernie Fong, Paul Schatt, and Margaret Maxon.

Die Deutschen Wildkatzen weren't exactly tame themselves this school year. Have you ever heard them sing German songs? They should present an assembly for the rest of us music lovers some time! But they had a wonderful time, with many and varied activities.

They were on hand for the department Yule Party; they organized cookie sales, visited a mortuary for a lively time, and saw colored slides shown by a member who had lived for seven years in Germany. Annual banquet was held at Der Steiner.

For A Better Understanding . . .

Fellowship Club is dedicated to the study of basic ideas, customs, religions, and is open to all. This year they have had many prominent speakers, including the Rev. Zeno Johnson, former CeHS teacher.

Achievements this year included contributing to the AFS stock program, and helping with posters during Brotherhood Week. Officers are Carl Hunter, president; Barbara Edwards, vice president; Sue Keilly, secretary; Susie Friedman, Janice Pearson, program chairmen; Susan Gregory, publicity; and club sponsors, Miss Kreizenbeck and Mr. Sordahl.

Spanish study is not limited to learning fast dance steps and bull fighting! Actually, La Tertulia, Spanish Club, promotes a better understanding of the Spanish speaking people in Mexico and South America, as well as the "homeland" in Spain.

La Tertulia had an exciting year which included seeing the movie Ben Hur, some money-raising bake sales, an inter-language Christmas party, and furnishing the library with a foreign-country display.

Getting Ready For The Future

Great indeed is the word "future", so vast are its possibilities. Future Teachers of America, faced with new emphasis on Space Age problems and the probabilities of many teacher duties being taken over by electronic marvels, see new challenges. Will machines take over? Will one "teacher" be responsible for thousands who use TV at home instead of at school? FTA isn't perturbed. Teachers will be ready when needed—good teachers, too!

Business, solid backbone of America's busy economy, encourages the sort of training high schools are giving young people. Primarily, however, the principles of honesty, industry, and ambition will do as well 10 years from now as they have the last 100. FBLA meets regularly to discuss business procedures and practices. Each member is dedicated to enlightening other students as to the many vocational opportunities awaiting in the business world.

Service Brings Satisfaction

Senior Tri-Hi-Y members not only have participated in many service projects, but also they've had fun while they work. This year the main service project was working at the Crippled Children's Home and donating to World Service. The club also had two bake sales, a car wash, the annual "come-as-you-are breakfast", a Christmas party and to end the year, a hilarious slumber party.

One of the most active and helpful groups on campus this year has been Tri Fidelis Junior Tri-Hi-Y. Selecting as their service project the Golden Gate Settlement House, these energetic juniors set out to make it worthwhile, holding a canned food drive and a car wash. Their bill for the Model Legislature was concerned with improving the conditions that now exist at the Arizona State Hospital.

Success Path Often Rough

If at first you don't succeed . . . you'll be like the majority of researchers the world over who are seeking the answers to scientific problems. Everybody knows the story of Mr. Bell and his telephone, and of Dr. Salk and the hundreds of experiments it took to bring positive results. Without scientific research man would be back in the caves, venturing out occasionally with a club looking for a meal to knock over. And that would be a very rough life!

But the caveman's club and the sort of organization represented by Chemistry Projects Club are ages apart. Directed by Mr. Bereit, the students have probed eagerly into problems that still stump the world's great scientists. Maybe they won't find all the answers—yet. But just give them time.

Another science-minded group, sponsored by Mrs. Ann Johnson, has been working diligently on the new bio-chemistry B.S.C.S. version of biology. For six weeks they have worked in squads on a plant block checking seed germination, metabolism, growth, internal organization, plant regulators and working out various charts, extensive and complicated graphs, logarithms, and other equations with often interesting results for members of the club.

BOTANY STUDENTS Voss, Johnston, and Eberhard check a plant-structure chart in connection with their study of the structure of monocot and dicot plants and nature of their germination.

ARTIFACTS and artists form a composite here! Art Club members include Elardo, Penden, Gregory and (standing)

In That Busy World Of Art...

Talented members of the Art Club dived into the work at hand to brighten the scenery, promote worthwhile projects, and generally enjoy life at Central. Activities included a visit to the Phoenix Art Center and a trip to ASU. More practical was the Christmas project to paint and repair toys for tots at the County Hospital. They also sold many cup-cakes.

Poster Club, another art group, put in many long hours preparing signs for campus activities. Specializing more on the commercial phases of art, the members designed and constructed many an eye-catching poster for exhibit in the breezeway and at other strategic spots on campus. Mr. Johanson sponsored the Art Club, Miss McCann the Poster Club.

Husky Hard Workers

Athletics certainly has a lot of hard-working men, always after more money by doing different jobs for the club treasury. The boys sold candy canes at Christmas time; ran the County and District track meet at Central along with selling pop and candy, and sold those popular red and gray derbies at pep rallies and on Color Day. Lettermen contributed much help, in their main slogan: "Let's promote better school spirit." Many also said the Lettermen had one of the best dances ever, with 50 donated cakes given away as prizes. The Lettermen ended their year with a big splash, a swimming party, which showed the Lettermen had plenty of spirit, too!

National Honors To Them...

At a time when scholarship is being emphasized, national recognition of gifted students is instrumental in encouraging continued learning. Based on a national standard stressing scholarship, citizenship, leadership, and service, NHS has won a well-deserved prestige in every U.S. high school.

Central's membership is 75 this year. Highlighting the society's activities was the special program held Sunday, May 7 at which members were officially inducted. Sponsors include Mrs. Redewill, Mrs. McCubbin, Mr. Ellis, and Mr. Sordahl. David Stoffa was president, assisted by Charles Burton, NHS vice-president; Barbara Kulick, corresponding secretary; Judith Pardee, secretary; Rosemary Parr, treasurer and publicity chairman.

With An Eye On Scholarship

We are materialists. We like to boast of our flashy cars, beautiful homes, the highest buildings, things like that. And many still evaluate colleges in terms of their football teams: The better the win record, the better the college! At least that was the vogue until Sputnik awoke us to the real truth: schools are best that turn out the best students, those who can build bridges and atom reactors; students who know languages, mathematics, social sciences. Let the star athlete join the professionals, get praise and make a lot of money.

On Central's campus we have a club that, believe it or not, specializes in scholarship! Your time on the track team, or your total score at the basketball tournament don't mean too much when you apply for membership in Parnassus. Of course, athletes do join, but they are accepted if they have no less than a 1.5 grade average in semester marks.

Named for the mythical Mount Parnassus in Greek lore and sacred to the Muses, Parnassus Club helps promote high interest in scholarship and provides many opportunities for service to the school.

Averages Can Be Improved!

C-r-rash! The sound you just heard was a forest of hardwood pins being scattered by members of Central High Bowling Club. Each player, anxious to achieve the perfect 300 game, is sure to show up at Camelback Lanes every Monday afternoon. Understandably, the averages do climb and the players improve with such faithful practice.

League champions Mike Richmond and Arty Weiner helped the group defeat West High and KRUX bowlers. Mike's high game was 256 and high series, bowled by Dick Thal, was 662. Neil Schnitzer held high average of 177.

Senior Girls' Council winds up four years of active participation in a worthwhile program at Central. Many have served groups since freshman days.

Girls' League groups, affiliated with similar groups throughout the nation, have a major ideal—democracy. Every high school girl who so desires, can join the group and participate in its series of interesting and worthwhile endeavors. Charity drives, the study of good sportsmanship and citizenship, and just plain meeting and enjoying things together help to make League work a mainstay of high school life . . . and community life as well.

They Deal With New Ideas

Second syllable of Humanities Club is a clue to the group's purpose: study of man and the ideas that preoccupy him. The club was formed to promote an understanding of ideas that could lead to a clearer awareness of society's problems. Several interesting projects included a debate between congressional candidates, the study of art and music through films and live programs, and the attendance at many cultural activities of general interest here.

One way to encourage creative writing is to get people to write! That's a prime objective of Progressive Writers' Club. Members tackle all types of writing from essays to dynamic free verse . . . and with sparkling results. Group criticism and encouragement make the club worthwhile.

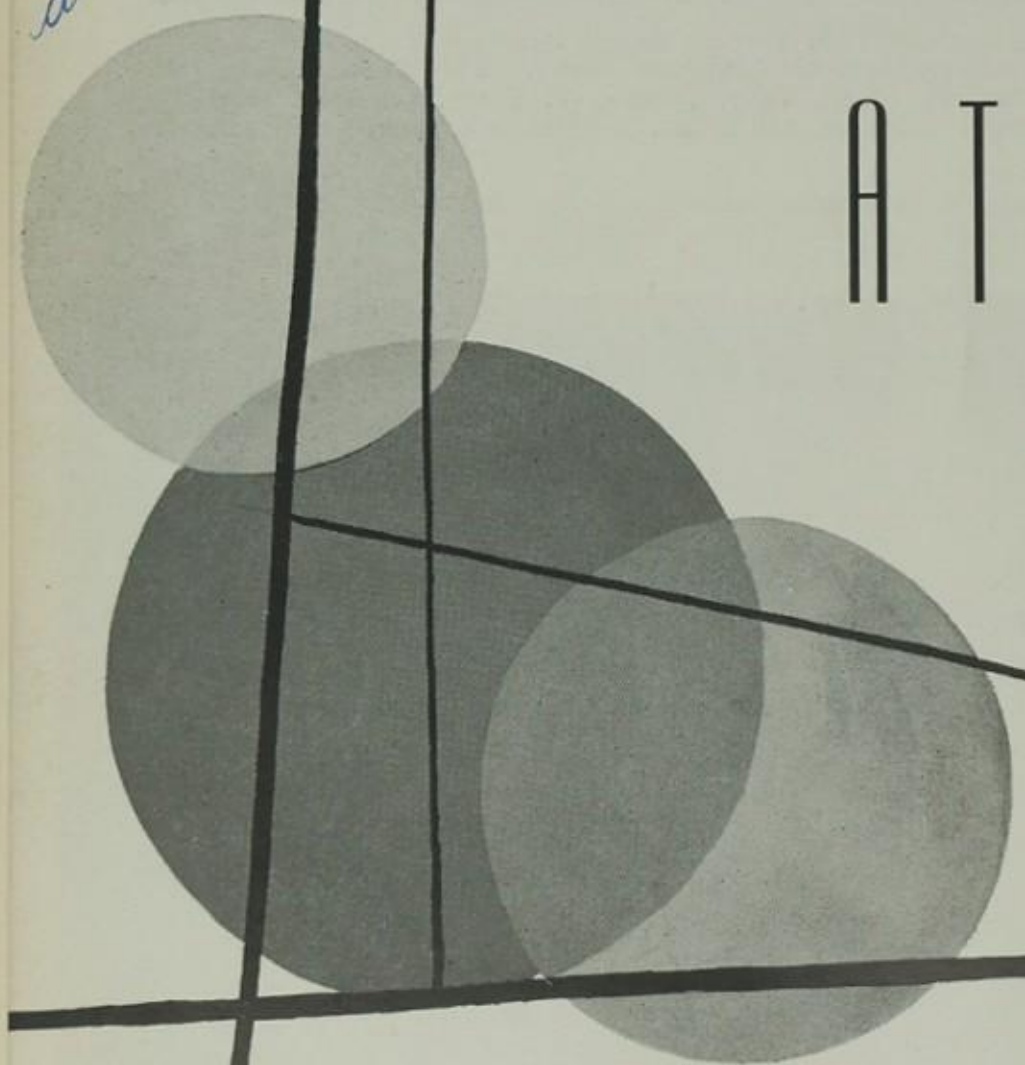

Several have written short stories they hope to sell. "We write tons of stuff!" explained one member. "Some of it is bound to be pretty good!"

Rugged Bobcats Triumph 7-1

COME TO PAPA — Mike Foley is trapped by North High guard as he nears goal line. Central High won this rough gridiron match 13 to 0.

That Yuma Jink Strikes Again!

Great was the word for Central's Bobcat grid season, with the Red and Gray roaring to a 7-1 record against the state's most rugged teams. But for a sad 15-13 loss to Yuma's Criminals in what at first appeared sure victory for the Cats, Coach Ron Eastin's boys might have won the State AA title.

For the 1960 season, Central scored 158 points to the total for all opponents — 47. One consolation: mythical City Title went to Central. Following a great showing at the Phoenix Union Carnival, CeHS rode over Carl Hayden 37-7, shouldered Camelback aside by a tense 9-7 before bowing to the Yuma jinx.

Rincon was next victim, 26-0, with most of the Central scoring coming from superb team play. But it remained for the South High Rebels to prove the mettle of Coach Eastin's musclemen. The Oct. 21 clash which opened second half of the grid campaign revealed the Cats' potent offensive as they scored two TDs first six minutes of the game.

FOOTBALL FIRST — Al Moutran stretches longside to grasp a first down for the Bobcats vs. North, dragging middle of Mustang line along with him. RIGHT: There he goes! — Dave Whittaker darts right to elude Rincon High defensemen but is toppled by the alert center as he heads for what looked like an open field. But in spite of such reverses, Central won 26-0.

FLASHY FOOTWORK—Jim Bostrom appears captured but displays some fancy maneuvering to whiz past Camelback safety man. Bobcats fought hard to edge Spartans 9-7. RIGHT: Stand back! — Mike Foley appears to be warning Rincon players to clear the way for him. Plan must have worked, as Foley charged through for a sizable gain. Rincon High lost this battle.

We Beat The Birds, Finally!

Sweet as was the victory over South, Central's defeat of West made history. Never before had a CeHS team bested West Phoenix in football. The final score, 14-12, failed to indicate the complete mastery Central displayed.

It took a second-half rally featuring sparkling offense and defense to plow down North High's Mustangs and capture the City Title, 13-0. Held scoreless first half, the Cats smashed to two TDs the first two times they handled the ball — on a 2-yard sweep by Mel Dunn and an 18-yard sprint by Mike Foley.

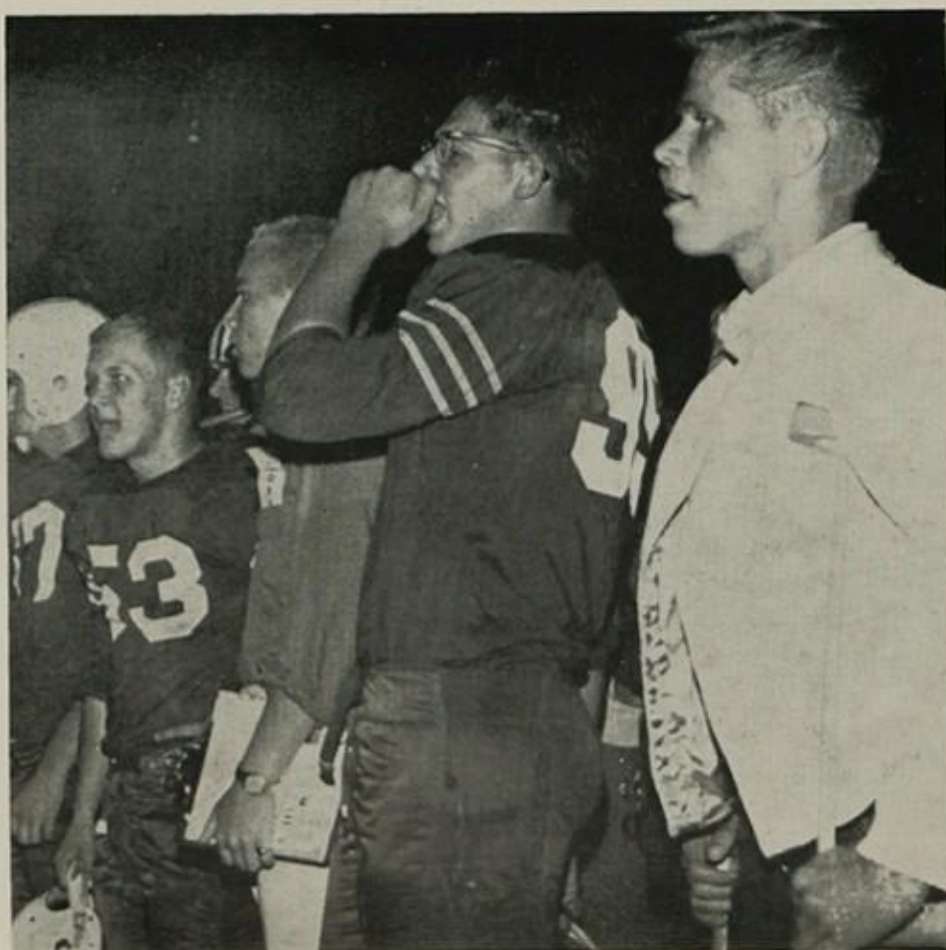

Catalina fell to the Bobcats Nov. 18 in Tucson. In a thrilling finish to the 1960 grid season, the graduating seniors dominated the play. Linemen contributed brilliantly, forcing bulges through which Dunn and Al Moutran romped to 26-6 score.

Slaughtering Catalina, the Bobcats counted their seventh win in eight starts. Displaying the state's finest defense, the club allowed less than 6 points a game to opponents.

Individual leaders were Moutran with 49 points and Dunn with 48. Moutran had 491 net yards gained to Dunn's 475. All-State Conference honors went to Fullback Moutran, first team; and Dave Whittaker, second team. End Tom Fife, Tackle Terry Schmidt, Halfback Dunn, and Center Engle won honorable mention.

High praise went to Coaches Eastin and Bob Ruman for skillful handling of their great squad.

DON'T DROP IT!—Tension mounts on Bobcat bench as Central rallies against West in last quarter. Worriers are Bentle, Manager Cox, Gelt, and Bostrom, who was injured in Yuma game.

Good 'J' Team Nets 4-5 Score

Junior Varsity gridders had lots of breaks for 1960, and most of them were bad. The almost-but-not-quite winners of several close ones ended the season 4-5, but that was hardly indicative of their real worth. With even their fair share of luck, the JVs could have had wins instead of losses, Coaches Leitsch and Kemp declared.

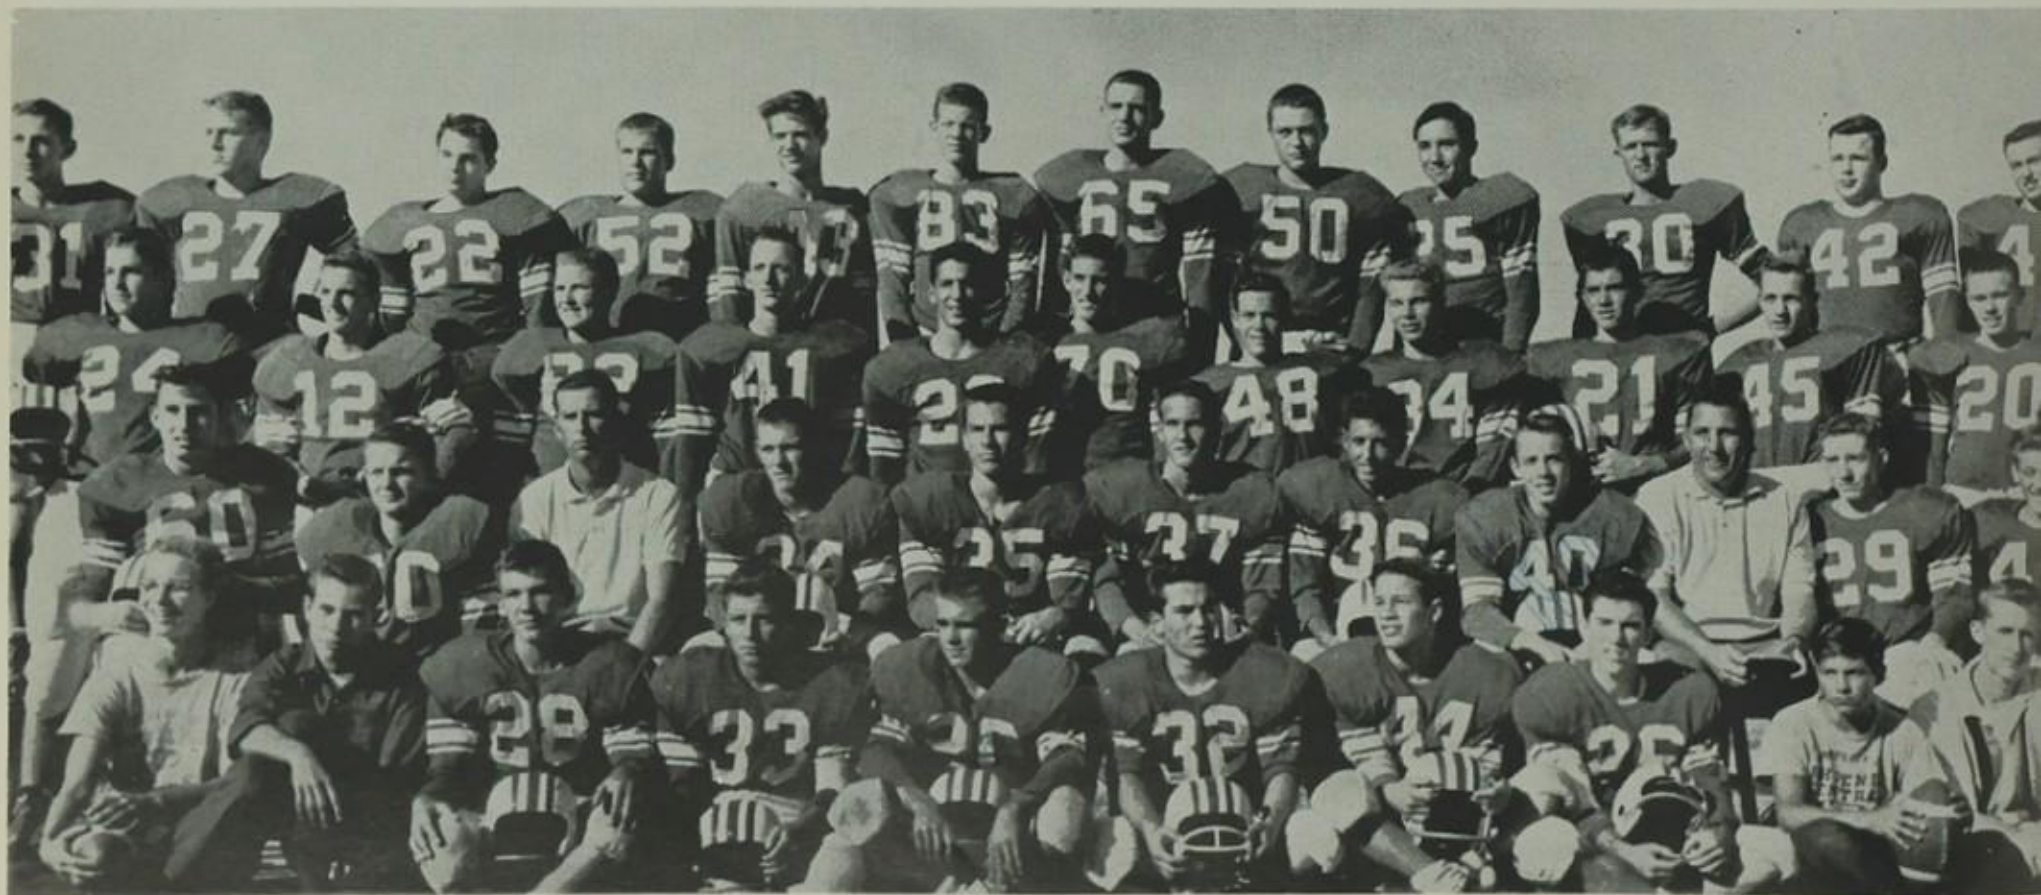

First game of the season found the Central High lads victors over a scrappy Carl Hayden club, 14-7. But the next game, versus Mesa's JVs set the locals back 0-14 in a game so close that the score could have been reversed with little change in statistics.

Camelback High School's JVs felt the wrath of a stirred-up grid gang, Central emerging 20-13. Now, perhaps, the season would turn out the way it should, the CeHS boys decided, as they went for Mesa and revenge. Alas, the vengeance must wait for yet another game, the Bunnies mauling the Junior Cats 34-14. Washington proved to be victim No. 3 for the Leitsch-Kemp lads, 14-7, but again the hot-cold virus attacked and West tromped on them 27-14. Carl Hayden again obliged with the locals' fourth and last victory, 14-7. Then South blanked us 18-0 and North's Colts kicked us around 31-14 to wind up the season.

Outstanding for Central were Dick Boal, Craig Liston, Gary Stahl, Bill Hershfield, Stuart Lane, Jim Gentry, and Jeff Orgill. The club as a whole won high praise for good sportsmanship and will to fight.

'A'-'B' Boys Gain Experience

Proud indeed of their freshmen footballers were Coaches Troutt, Garcia, and Hoeffel, who pointed to the teams' season records as moral victories against long odds. The "A" squad whitewashed Carl Hayden 7-0; Phoenix Indian School 7-0; Camelback 18-0; and West 6-0. However, their string of victories was broken when Mesa, South Mountain, North High, and Washington High turned the tables on the fighting Frosh. Praised by the coaches for outstanding performances were Swayda, Follet, Bodenhorn, Payton, Barry, Gilbert, Ryan, Crecelius, Smith, Sechs, Whittaker, Frantz, and Jim Langley.

Although suffering several losses "B" Team had a fighting spirit second to none. Only 10 dropped of the 45 boys who started the season with the squad. The boys had learned the fundamentals of the game well enough to have a productive season next year. Recognized as being outstanding players were DeSoto, King, Nielsen, Nave, Kopchak, Fish, Hartman, Silverman, Perry O'Brian, Pence, Rasmussen, Seaver, Sherer, Metters, Wenzel, Sodaro, Sargeant, and Cooper. All served CeHS well! "We'll get real help from these 'A' and 'B' boys when the campaign opens next fall," coaches say.

UP-UP AND OVER! Sophomore Randy Lindner vaults above Camelback defender with his long hook shot. Lindner brought vital spark to Central High Cats with his sharpshooting. Spartans finally won with last-minute rally by a 46-45 score.

Their Play Proved Exciting

Possibly the most prophetic page in Central High sports was written this year by Coach Ken Troutt's Bobcat basketballers. Tabbed the "inexperienced Bobcats" by the local press, the hoopsters still played a fast and exciting brand of basketball.

Randy Lindner tied the school scoring record of 33 points, and the Cats twice broke their own point mark. Lindner led the Bobcats to an 82-80 last-minute victory over North High's Mustangs, Jan. 13. It was easily the Big Thrill of the basketball season.

Four Starters Will Return!

The Cats won their first game early in December, as Lynn Wright led a spirited second-half to down Sunnyslope 60-48. Title hopes were to be all but crushed afterward, however, as the cagers dropped their next four contests by a combined total of 11 points. West was the first victor. Then Carl Hayden caught the Cats with a 7-point free throw advantage to win 58-53.

Most disappointing loss of the season then came at the hands of arch-rival Camelback. The Bobcats, led by Bob Farrer, thrilled a capacity crowd by early building a commanding lead. Camelback then played cautiously, slowly nipping away at the Cats' lead. With but 26 seconds left, the Spartans hit a long field goal to make it 44-44. Central then scored what appeared to be the deciding blow on Farrer's pressure free throw. But Camelback's Milt Jacobs hit from 15 feet out with a looping set shot to give the Spartans a 46-45 victory over our boys.

Central then lost a slow-moving game to Phoenix Union, 63-58. Many chances for victory were given up by the Bobcats, who were far below their normal shooting prowess. The Cats paid Tempe back for their earlier loss, by 71-64.

With all pressure off, and the last home game approaching, the Bobcats none the less practiced to go out in a blaze of glory. That they did. The final game in the Central gym, against North High's Mustangs, was the greatest in Central High's short history. The graduating seniors, Lynn Wright, Bob Farrer, Scott Stowe, and Mike Ernst all sparkled to lead the Cats to an overwhelming 86-69 victory. A capacity season-end crowd watched the Bobcats successfully execute all their patterns, and break their season and all-time scoring marks.

Next year, the team will have four starters returning, most of their bench, and a talented bunch from Coach Kemp's top-ranked junior varsity team.

To Outsmart Tall Talent...

Lacking height but with an abundance of speed and hustle, the Junior Varsity compiled a respectable 13-6 basketball record. Coach Kemp had high praise for his boys who met obstacles with quick wits, basketball savvy, top coordination and drive.

Top scoring effort was against Tempe, 75-40. JV also dunked West 74-54 and Carl Hayden 63-48, Yuma 60-35, Hayden 59-44. They lost to Camelback 47-34, North 60-51, and Phoenix Union 63-57. The loss to Cortez was a 61-59 squeaker.

Leading scorer was Jim Gentry with a 13.0 average for 235 total points. Bill Vanderhaar managed 12.1 and 218 points; David Jakes 10.0 and 190. Clint Rogel, Gordon Linstrom, and Dan Smith also were lauded as outstanding Junior Varsity players.

No Grunt, No Groan—Just Fun

Man's earliest form of exercise, in connection with his fellowman, must have been some form of strength-testing, such as wrestling. Then it was refined into a war-game, with the loser winding up with a broken neck. That sometimes happens today, even after wrestling became strictly a sport of strength and skill . . . but injuries are rare in modern day amateur high school-type wrestling.

Wrestling as taught at Central High is individual sport at its best. Each grappler depends on his personal skill and stamina for the score. The coach can't send in substitutes nor advise when trouble develops. Thus, self-reliance and initiative must arise, in the face of whatever might come.

Our 1960-61 Bobcat wrestlers numbered 71 boys, with varsity, J.V., and Frosh units. By season's end, 41 wrestlers remained and had taken one out of 11 matches to place third in District 11. Six boys qualified for the State Meet: Mike Gotch, 112 lbs.; Rich Pingatore, 127; Bill Ware, 133; Tome Crowe, 145; Mike Johnson, 154, and Stan Gilliam, 175. Pingatore won second in the state and Crowe placed fourth in his class. The team gained 13 points to win 13th place in the State rankings.

lett, flying through the air with the greatest of ease . . . with the aid of a trampoline. LEFT: Tumbling is the forte of Mike Clelland. RIGHT: High bar man Bob Dahl manages suspended animation during a workout. Boys develop muscle control.

When They Flex It Shows . . . !

AGILITY RATHER than brawn marks the good gymnast. Central's small squad for 1960-61, hampered by lack of a regular coach, still worked out with the help of busy Vice Principal Wayne Pitts, who filled in as adviser until a regular coach instructor could be hired. The boys put in hours of practice, learning many of the fundamentals of tumbling and trapeze. They'll put such practice to good use in future gymnastics meets. Interschool, district, and state competition will add spice to their ambitions.

With Diamonds In Their Eyes

Untimely injuries hampered Central's diamond devils this year, but not enough to keep them from snagging second place in their conference. Although the season record stands at 9-9, the team had a 5-3 record in conference play, which put them only one game from first place, a better-than-average rating.

The Bobcats had the distinction of beating every team they played at least once, with the exception of Camelback, which fell twice to Coach Bob Ruman's nine. Most of the game's scores were close.

Gaining honors for outstanding team play were Mel Dunn, Al Moutran, Jim Neely, and Mike Foley. Foley was noted for his highly respectable .438 batting average, which made him the bat champ for the CeHS aggregation. Dunn, Moutran, and Neeley were consistently sharp offensively and defensively.

GOT IT! Shortstop Mel Dunn snags a speed ball to show that they just can't come too fast.

SAFE BY a mite! Coach Ruman rules in favor of Jim Neeley during a practice slide, since Catcher Al Moutran holds ball in glove rather than in hand.

JVs Sparkled For Big 13-6

Junior Varsity baseball fortunes zoomed, the boys carrying a 13-win, 6-lost record to the final inning of the season. Coach Phil Kemp declared the JVs showed an unusual verve and hustle, as well as the ability to come from behind with odds against them.

Nominated for important jobs with the varsity in 1962 were these players: Jim Gentry, batting average .288, a fine prospect; good hitter, good on defense. Bob Bentle, batting average .310, strong, with good potential. Danny Smith, batting average .283, fine defensive player, consistent hitter. Rich Warriner, .406, outfielder and pitcher, undefeated. Topped the club in hitting. Robert Kauffman, .256, consistent, dependable. Bill Sherer, .257, showed great improvement this season; strong on defense. Bill Hershfield, .189, good catcher and defender. Outstanding as pitchers were Doug McAdams, Warriner, Gordon Lindstrom, and Joe Bernard.

They Aim To Hit—And Do!

Baseball — America's No. 1 sport — has found enthusiastic followers at Central High School. Three strong squads pursued the evasive spheroid this spring, improving their throwing arms, batting eyes, and sportsmanship rating.

While other teams were wailing the blues, with many players laid up with injuries, the Freshman Baseball team was blasting out a 12-5 slate to set a new season record for a beginners squad.

First Baseman Smith, second bagger Cooper, and shortstop Bodenhorn were the pick-off experts with a total of 36 double plays, declared Coach Joe Garcia. The pitching staff of Sachs, O'Brian, and Ryan was the best ever, according to Mr. Garcia; and third sacker Sherer and catcher Follett made it almost impossible for any opponents able to get on base to make it home. Valuable training in ball playing as well as competition make these boys strong candidates for the varsity and JV squads next season.

Batting also was extremely strong, with the team average a mighty .275, Frosh Cooper blasted out a .327 for season, making him team's bat strongman.

AW RIGHT, an easy, slow ball right over the plate, pal! Right over the plate!

Track

COME ON, BOY, Central's Martensen did, too, winning the high hurdles against Scottsdale competition in 16.0. Mike Box was third for the Bobcats.

Winners First Must Practice

Most inviting to boys who want to develop athletic prowess but feel too light for football, too short for basketball is high school track. Every student is urged to try out, and if he shows promise, however slight, is encouraged to train. Persistence and perseverance pay . . . and track stars emerge! That's been established by Olympics champions and nationally famous athletes as a proven fact.

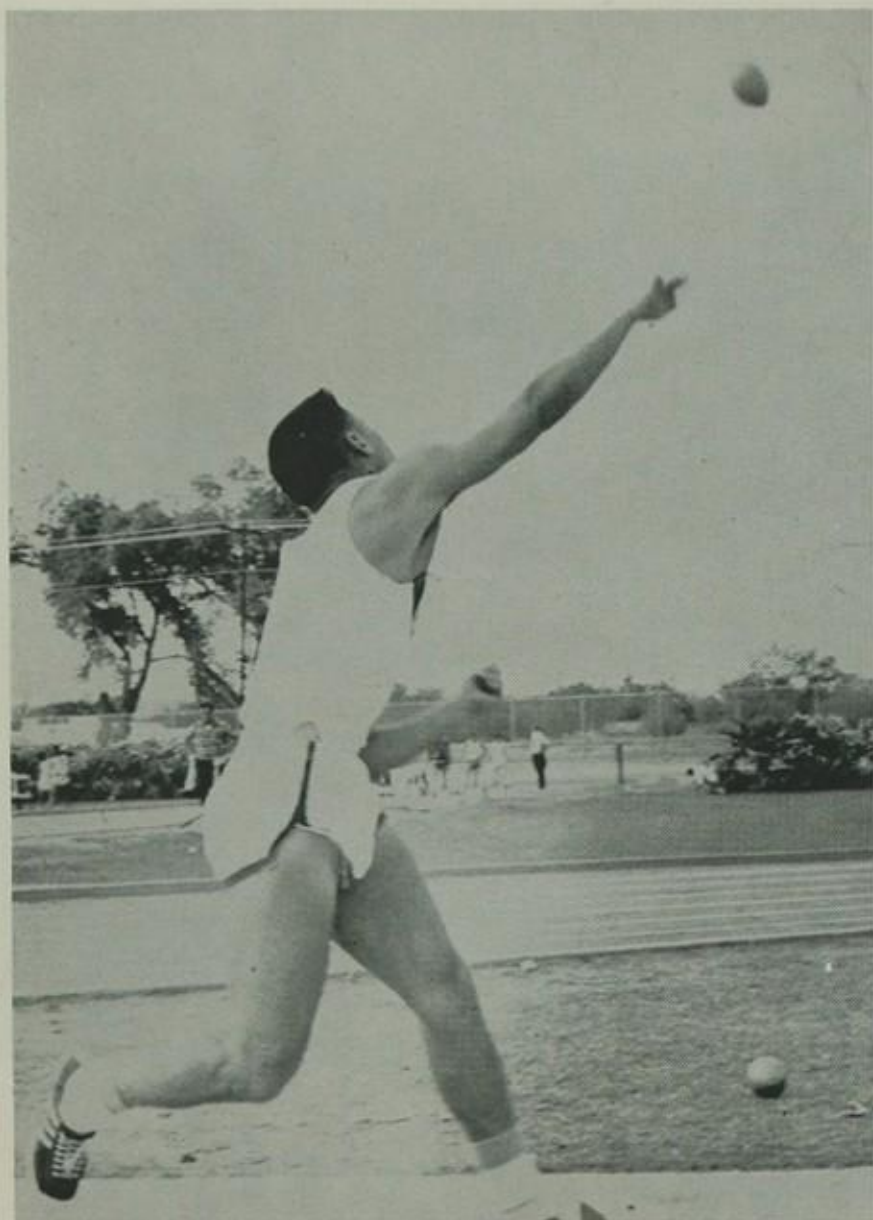

The 1961 Central High track squad, composed largely of juniors and sophomores, held their own, winning four meets and losing four. The cinder-men defeated Yuma, Carl Hayden, South Mountain and Scottsdale. They lost to Camelback, Phoenix Union, North, and West High. The Bobcats made strong showings in the City Relays, Central High Relays, City and District meets throughout season.

VARSITY TRACK—(top): Fife, Malody, Flowers, Turner, Martensen, Walrath, Crowe, Hedges, Humphrey. CENTER: Schurgin, Cunningham, Ash, Jacobson, Porter, O'Clair, Sontag, Heeter, Gee. BOTTOM: Brakebill, Welcome, Abromovitz, Coach Thompson, Anderson, Tower, Long, and Alberti. The Bobcat squad broke even with opponents for '61 season.

MUSCLEMAN! Gary Abromovitz sends the shot into orbit during dual meet. He finished second to Eddie Hedges of Central. RIGHT: With a foot to spare, Ed Martensen soars over the top to win the pole vault event at 12'6" versus Scottsdale. Ed vaulted 13'7" in the AA State Qualifying meet at ASU, 3 inches higher than the previous mark and sixth best in the U.S.

Cats Break 4 Records, Tie 2

flin, Barber, Crecelius, Leitsch. TOP: Mazzolla, Bochner, Comings, Thompson, McCullough, Dunn, Piepergerdes, Alberti, Forsyth, and Boal. They'll all be back for action in 1962.

CROSS-COUNTRY Squad includes (bottom) Dale, Rheingold, Dan Malody, Inman, Sonntag, Ware. CENTER: Flogg, Eglington, Halfin, Coce, Barber, Ray Malody, Rooker, Coach Thompson.

TOP: McGinty, Mikal, Bernard, Humphrey, Hubert, Turner, Cunningham, Boyle, Porter, and Bendalin. Squad had a fine season, with Hubert, Turner, and Humphrey doing great work.

Old Records Went Tumbling

Coach Bill Thompson's Bobcat tracksters broke five school records in 1961 and tied two. Ed Martensen led the assault when he set the 13'3" pole vault record and a 20.6 time in the low hurdles. Ed tied the high hurdles time of 16.0. Mike Turner broke his own mile record with a good 4:36.8; Gary Abromovitz set a new mark of 47'2" in the shot put; John Anderson ran the 880 in the new time of 1:59.9. Al Long tied the 100-yard dash with a speedy 10.3. Martensen was high point man on the team with over 100 points as well as conference champion in the pole vault. Anderson won conference honors with his fine record in the 440.

Cross-Country racing is gaining interest in the Valley and at Central. From a slow start two years ago, the young Bobcat team, despite many injuries, placed a strong third in the 1960 City Meet.

High point men were Mike Turner, Ron Hubert, and Dave Humphrey. Turner was team's top star, scoring well in Invitational, City, and District Meets.

UP & OVER goes Roy Malody, high jumping at 5'5" in the Scottsdale dual. Bobcat in background is standing on bale of straw, holding crossbar against a strong wind on day of the meet.

Genial George, Champion!

Holder of numerous championships, titles, and honors, George Boutell was almost single-handedly responsible for giving the Central High golf team a formidable reputation all over the state. George's rise to prominence in golfing circles began when, at the ripe old age of 13, he sank a hole-in-one at the Country Club. Since that time George has added a long string of victories to his golf record.

In 1958, young Boutell was the state junior champion and youngest qualifier in the history of the U.S. Amateur Golf Championship. The next year, he took the Phoenix Country Club Championship and the state Jaycee Championship. The year 1960 was a peak season for the genial golfer, with championships from the Thunderbird Invitational, Phoenix Country Club, state Jaycees, state high schools, Phoenix City Amateur competition, and honors in the Phoenix Open coming his way.

Also, that year found George the winner of the Sixth International Jaycee Golf Tournament with a score of 66, the lowest round in the history of the tournament. Central High has much to be proud of, in a Bobcat like George Boutell. Watch the sports pages for more and more news of him!

TROPHIES TO BURN—Ace divot-digger George Boutell looks over some of his many trophies. There are others in storage about the house, in the attic, garage, and elsewhere. The youthful golf star plans to add more trophies to the collection.

GOLFERS smile their glee at the 20-0 record for 1960-61.
FRONT: Kaufman, Batt, Jenkins, Rosenthal, Felman. CENTER:

Ray, Cherry, Burack, J. Johnston, D. Johnston, King. TOP:
 Elder, Boutell, Raden, Zivney, Frank, Burton, Wright, Mr. Zorn.

Swingin' With 'Fore-ward' Zip

When it comes to the turf, Central's golfers are tough . . . to beat, that is! Under the guidance of coach Harvey Zorn, the Golf Varsity walloped all opposition to build a 20-0 victory skein as of May 1.

Highlighting the season for the local divot diggers was their domination over West High's 1960 champions. In Two matches the Zorn team blasted West 11-9 and 12-8. The Cats were in a choice spot to grab the state championship.

Next year, however, the Cats face a Herculean task: rebuilding a team which dominated the prep links tourneys for four years. Leaving are the "big three," Mason Frank, Charles Burton, and, incidentally, George Boutell. With only a few returning lettermen for next year, Coach Zorn will scan the incoming class carefully, as he attempts to build another golf powerhouse.

TENNIS SQUAD (bottom): Heineman, McDonald, Boucus, Boyd.
CENTER: Steinberger, Zimmerman, Wells, Lazar, Mardian. TOP:

Cross, Parker, Coach Carnahan, Blende, Dellinger, Hartsfield.
 Ten members of tennis squad are planning to return next fall.

Racqueteters Triumph 10-2

Success smiled broadly on the 1960-61 Bobcat tennis Varsity. With only two matches remaining, Coach Chris Carnahan's boys had won 10 and lost only 2, with prospects good for a 12-2 season. At press time, Tom Parker, Bill Everhard and Harold Dellinger were ready to face tough competition University Week at U of A.

Outstanding players Parker and Eberhard, both four-year lettermen, have won individual trophies for excellence and sportsmanship. They will have their names engraved on the two permanent trophies to be displayed at Central High. Parker played in the finals of all the big tourneys this year and was defeated only once in this year's inter-mural play. Other varsity lettermen were Paul Hartsfield, Dave Blende, Bill Cross, Harold Dellinger, and Jeff Lazar.

Junior Varsity won 8 of 11 matches, with one draw. These boys will contribute to a balanced squad of 10 starters for next fall.

Girls Are Good Sports, Too!

Don't think today's fair sex sits demurely on the sidelines while boys have all the real fun on the athletic fields! Far from it, Girls' Athletic Association has done much to promote an active interest in sports for girls at Central High. GAA gives the mthe opportunity to participate in soft-ball, volleyball, basketball, archery, golf and numerous other games.

GAA enjoyed friendly competition in many city-wide "Play Days" during the year. The group sponsored, again this year, the Sage Brush Swing and the Beard Growing Contest held during Rodeo Week. Whiskers and Wild West outfits added zest to campus life, everyone agreed.

Under the leadership of Miss Joyce Sanders and Mrs. Harriet Mitten, the girls learned the importance of fair play, teamwork, and good sportsmanship. Promoting social development by means of team play, physical well-being through the use of the body in sports, and preparing for leisure time activities are all part of this wide-awake organization. The GAA's popularity increases with the years.

Take Aim!

ARCHERY TEAM draws a bead on the bullseye. Hiller, Wahl, Vannatter, Wilcox and Trask. All won high praise.

Central's Archery Team, under the direction of Mrs. Harriet Mitten, took top honors in the State Tournament, March 3 and 4, at University of Arizona. Claudia Wilcox won first place in the Flight A category and Mary Ann Wahl took first in the Clout division. Kay Vanatter was the only girl to shoot a perfect end at the 30 yard range. The team excelled in the City Tourney, April 29-30.

Congratulations are in order for Central's Badminton Team directed by Miss Joyce Sanders. The JV team has a perfect record of 8 wins, no losses and the Varsity has scored 5 wins and 2 losses. Four girls attended the State Meet at ASU, where Sally Rudolph and Nancy Hayden won the State Doubles Championship. Also playing in the tournament were Central's Jan Wilson and Jan Cooper.

BADMINTON SQUAD girls have that bright 'n early look . . . they meet at 7 a.m! KNEELING: Lollis, Wieding, Manor, Halstead, Hamman. STANDING: Snodgrass, Hayden, Dudolph, North, Jacobson, Wilson, and Cooper.

Those Swingin' Bobkittens!

Girls Golf Team has had an excellent 1961-62 record. Directed by Mrs. Harriet Mitten, the divot devotees won many honors. Carol Smith took first place in the Flight A competition at the City Tournament, Chris Zivney took fifth place and Freddie Kalina placed seventh for a terrific team total.

Although Central's Tennis Team is now rebuilding, its record has been good this year, a 3-4 score. The JV Team has a perfect record of 5.0. Varsity Team Members participated also at University Week in Tucson, May 12 and 13. Miss Joyce Sanders is director of this up and coming young girls' squad.

TENNIS TEAM strikes a pretty pose while looking forward to an even better season in 1961-62. TOP ROW: Randall, Owen, Carpenter, Luby, Blumberg, Garcia. FRONT ROW: Curry, Lockwood, Laughlin, and Earl.

Whoops! Hoops!

RIGHT IN TUNE with the yearbook there are these Modern Dancers, practicing for the Christmas Program. COUNTER-CLOCKWISE are Sue Young, Jane Freeman, Sharon Super, Amy Good, and Bev Shelly. Directed by Miss Colleen Cook, the dancing groups have played prominent parts in several Central High programs, including the Dads' Club May 1. They combined with the West High Modern Dancers to present a program at ASC, Flagstaff and again at West High. The Central girls also appeared on the CeHS television show and in a program at Tucson for the YMCA. Talent like theirs can be appreciated.

CAMPUS LIFE — that's the life to enjoy. In class we eagerly grasp at new wonders to learn, but we get our real kicks outcleverness, or silliness of others.

STUDENT LIFE

Draw Mister!

GO WEST, YOUNG MAN, go West, But watch out for hostile Indians and bearded Bobcats! It's Maverick Day, and all you dudes in Eastern clothes are gonna be thrown into the Corral. The annual event, sponsored by GAA, featured the culmination of the beard-growing contest and the Sagebrush Swing, a western dance, in the gym. UPPER LEFT—The end of the Maverick! Bad desperado bites the dust. UPPER RIGHT—from left, Kurzer, Smith, Wallace and Haskes (dancing), and Wahl. LOWER LEFT—Sankey, Two-gun Telfer, and Hunter. LOWER RIGHT—Sheriffs for Maverick Day were Wallace, Perkins, D'Angelo. Who'd ever thought mere high school lads could sprout such luxuriant chin decorations! But it only grows to show—and it sho 'nuff does show!

Out West Whar Thar's Fun...

WAL, PARDNER, you could do worse than have a trio of purty fillies like this a-pullin' on yer whiskers! Girls' Athletic Association, sponsors of Maverick Day at Central, were more than willing to check chin-growth sported here by Leonard Hughes, if it meant publicizing the big event. Girls were Paulette Owen, Vicky Smith, and Becky Farrier. RIGHT: Y'all come to Maverick Day, now! That's the message from GAA members Mary Ann Wahl, Jeanette Cooper, Janet Wilson, Lynn Hershfield.

Fit For A Shah!

WHAT HAVE WE HERE (upper left) but Ol' Shah Moosa Brudie, himself. Slave Girl Genie serves Moosa's favorite delicacy. You guessed it, FILET OF SOLE! (with shoestring fries) . . . You can have some boiled tongue too! RIGHT: Meet a treat, the dee-lightful Barefoot Babes With Bongos, Kathy and Vonnice Anderson. LOWER LEFT: Boop-boop-o-doop . . . Betty Boop Gear, Bubbles Vaupell, and Skiddoo Morrell strike a 1920 pose. RIGHT: Shhhhh. Scandal! Don't tell anyone you saw us reading Central Echoes, plead Janet Dunikoski and Bob Storrs. We won't but we'll show the whole wide world Echoe's snappy front page!

Let's Face It!

FOUR HEADS are better! Facing up to the camera are Drum Majorettes Karrie Jefferies, Lorna Morgensen, Betty McCollum, Jan Baucum.

Tra-La, On Top Of Ol' Baldy!

PAGING YUL Brynner! Or Seven Keys to Baldpate! Or, Spring Is Here! Take your pick of the sheep who stand shorn of their winter coats. Impulsive to look repulsive were popular Kenny Bendon, Mike Bornhouser, A. J. Staples, Tom Bendon, Ed Pauling, Ron Brakebill, and Bob Wilfert. Fad failed to sweep campus, however, you might even say that it missed by a hair!

RAH RAH, TEAM! Cheerleader Marilyn Webb hits a high note for a big finale.

We Have To Cheer

ONE OF THE MAIN forces that drives a team to a fighting spirit is the sound of their fellow students cheering for all they're worth, even though they are only in the stands, and not on the field. Bobcat athletes had a lot to be proud of in the support given them by the student body. At football games, basketball tilts, wrestling meets, track meets, and baseball contests, our student body gave support to all endeavors of their representatives. After all, that's what creates good sportsmanship!

Senior Also-Rans

WHEN ALL THE HUZZAHS die down about the SENIOR MOSTS and all the glamour settles with the dust of time, you'll find our Senior Leasts making the headlines! In or out of jail, they'll be long remembered for their modesty, monkeyshines, and mental meanderings . . . ANYWAY, here they are: UPPER LEFT: Least likely to light up at a party, Stan-the-man Schatt, Rogue (eyelashes) Guirey; Least Likely To Break Out: Len (in pen) Hughes, Cherub White; Least Peaceable Tom The Elder and everlovin' Nancy Davenport. BELOW—left: Least Loud Bobbie Davie and Sweet Candy Stearns. Least Homely are Terry Pants and Nancy Samgottaman. Finally, Lynn Wright and his motorcycle moll, Vampa Johnson, are very least.

MORE OF less: World's champ tiddlywinker Al Moutran demonstrates his prowess with massive badminton bat to Adora Lott, his Swedish sweetie. Right: Can't we get away from politics? Always somebody trying to clean up on us, the payin' public!

Cuties!

HEADS UP to the future are the Pom Pon Girls of '61, Ellen Gradzinsky, Carolyn Morell, Rita Gear, Jean Stayman, Nancy Samuelson, Linda Vaupell, Pat Garner, and their captain, Elaine Hoffman.

EYES TO THE PAST—During a short spree of return to youth, senior girls rode bicycles to school for Senior Bermuda Day. LEFT TO RIGHT: Gail O'Hair, Rogue Guirey, Jean Stayman, Carolyn Hartman, Mary Ann Wahl, Terry Hudson, Sue Friedman, Jan Thielke, Ellen Karansky, Connie Henry, Carol Schwieger, Nancy Davenport, Barbara Ash, Peg Vanderhoff, Lynn Mangano.

UNDERCOVER AGENTS? Not exactly, but Star Gilbert and Louis Boell did find a big surprise when they explored the labyrinth of tunnels that run under and around Central's campus! The pipes carry gas and electric power and water for school use.

HEY...THAT'S A PRE-MIX JOB!

Wait till it hardens, "Scooter," and nothing . . . but nothing . . . will hurt that Pre-Mix patio floor. Made with precision-mixed concrete furnished by Arizona Sand and Rock, that patio was lovingly created from Dad's own design and it will endure as long as you need it.

When you move into your new home or decide to beautify your present yard with a smooth, all-weather patio, call for the candy-striped truck and precision-mixed ASR concrete. It's better!
